FIRST DAY.

NOBLESVILLE, IND., WEDNESDAY, APRIL 8, 1903.

At 8:30 A. M., Bishop John M Walden, D D, LL D, opened the sixtieth session of the North Indiana Conference in the First Methodist Episcopal Church in the city of Noblesville, Indiana, and announced Hymn No. 726,

"Come thou fount of every blessing," which was sung, and A Greenman led in prayer. The Bishop then read for Scripture lessons a part of the 52nd chapter of Isaiah and a part of the 12th chapter of Romans, and announced Hymn No. 798,

"And are we yet alive,"

which was sung, and M Mahan offered prayer.

Roll—The Bishop requested the Secretary of the former session to call the roll, and the following answered to their names:

REPORTS.

AMERICAN BIBLE SOCIETY.

We note with thankfulness the increasing interest in this, one of the seven great societies and second only in importance to the Missionary Society itself, as it supplies all our missionaries in every land with the Bibles which they use, without any expense whatever to the Missionary Board. Hence, as missionary work expands the work of the American Bible Society must meet with a corresponding advance. As this Society has sufficient income from rentals and interest on permanent funds to meet all cost of administration in the office and field, every cent of the contributions is directly applied to translating, printing and circulating the Scriptures, and yet it is impossible to supply the great demand. Therefore,

Resolved, 1. That the apportionment for this Society shall be at least seven per cent. of the amount apportioned for Missions.

2. That Pastors be urged to apply to the Field Agent for this district, Rev Dr John Pearson, The Roanoke Clifton, Cincinnati, Ohio, for leaflets and other information for assistance in presenting this cause to the people.

3. That a favorable hour be set apart during the next Conference session as an anniversary of the American Bible Society.

W J Vigus, President.
W L Singer, Secretary.

AUDITING COMMITTEE.

We, your committee appointed to audit the accounts of our Conference Secretary, have performed this duty and found them accurate and correct.

We beg to recommend that the balance in his hands of $31.45 be allowed him as an appreciation of his services and a small compensation for the same. And it is our undivided sentiment that we as a Conference should pay our Secretary and his assistants at least $100.00 annually for their work.

This work is confining and heavy, our Conference is large, and we should pay our Secretary as other cenferences are doing.

A G Neal,
Sherman Powell,
Chas E White,

BOOK COMMITTEE.

Dear Fathers and Brethren:

We, your Book Committee, in recognition of the magnificent report received from the Book Concern Committee, regarding the work of the past year, do respectfully submit the following resolutions and report:

WHEREAS, Our publications and periodicals are the only ones that teach our doctrines and stand for the polity of our beloved Church, and are, therefore, necessities for tutoring old and young, and

WHEREAS, Such high-class literature is sold at such nominal figures that none need plead the inability to purchase; therefore, be it

Resolved, That the Conference congratulates the Agents upon their splendid business ability and success, which has enabled them to declare such a handsome dividend, and

Resolved, That the Conference lay upon the Pastors and Sunday School Superintendents the necessity of the use of our splendid periodicals and publications, and urge them not to accept, even at a reduced figure, the inferior publications offered by our competitors.

Resolved, That we thank the Agents for the generous offer of a free trial order to any of our Sunday Schools, who are now served by our competitors, and that we urge that offer upon all who do not patronize our Houses.

Resolved, We heartily approve the editorial arrangement of the Western Christian Advocate. We should aim to put it into every Methodist home. To this end, we should at once strike for a minimum increase of five subscribers on every charge in connection with the special Wesley Bi-Centenary Anniversary.

Signed: F M LACY, President.
W W KENT, Secretary.
W D TROUT,
S LIGHT,
P ROSS PARRISH,
J L HUTCHENS.

To the North Indiana Conference:

WHEREAS, We find that a number of our Superannuated Preachers are indebted to the Book Concern, and inasmuch as the profits of the Book Concern come back to the Conferences for the benefit of the Superannuated Preachers; therefore, be it

Resolved, That the Treasurer of the Board of Stewards be instructed to pay twenty-five per cent. of the accounts due the Book Concern by all Conference Claimants of this Conference, until the entire account is paid.

Signed: F M LACY, President.
W W KENT, Secretary.

CHURCH EXTENSION.

1. We heartily congratulate the Board of Church Extension, and the Church at large, on the great success of this work in all its history, and especially on the remarkable financial success of the past year.

2. That our rapidly increasing population and new territorial additions still need the work of Church Extension, and that our Methodism, by fostering and strengthening this work, will increase its own power to do the large work demanded.

3. That we, as a Conference, will not be content with anything less than a full response to the call of the General Committee, until all people under the protection of the American flag shall be furnished with places for worship.

4. That our Presiding Elders be requested to apportion, with care, the full amount asked for Church Extension, to the several Districts and pastoral charges for collection, and that, availing ourselves of the helps provided by the Board, we will present this cause in all our churches, and secure, at least, the amount asked, in accordance with the plan of our Discipline.

5. From 1866, when this work began, to November 1, 1902, the Board collected and disbursed $7,748,781.24. Of this, the General Fund, derived chiefly from collections, personal gifts for Frontier Churches, $250 each, and Mountain Fund specials of $100 each, all for use by donations to churches, has aggregated $4,803,888.53. The loan fund has a permanent capital of $1,233,940.70, and churches borrowing have returned $1,710,952.01, giving for use by loans $2,944,892.71, making the aggregate above given, $7,748,781.24. With this the Board aided 12,364 churches.

6. Our Conference has shared in this work, as follows: The collections taken in our churches from the beginning to November 1, 1902, the close of the last fiscal year of the Board, aggregated $46,787.15. To this our Conference adds this year $6,680, including a bequest of $2,000, making a total of $53,467.15. Forty-five churches within our bounds have received aid up to November 1, 1902: By donations of $8,600 and loans of $19,150.

7. The part our Conference is to take, in both giving and receiving, is definitely fixed, under provisions of Discipline, by the General Committee from year to year. For the ensuing year our Conference is asked to raise by collections $6,000. Our needy churches may receive, on approved applications, $1,000. The amount of aid granted must depend on the amount of collections taken, and cannot exceed the proportion above indicated. Interest, therefore, in our own Conference, as well as in the general cause, should inspire us to all diligence to secure the full amount asked, and, if possible, go beyond it.

8. Christianity in Earnest, with its quarterly visits, will furnish to all who receive it the latest tidings of this work and its wants. Documents for free distribution can be secured by Pastors and church committees on Church Extension on application to the Board of Church Extension, 1026 Arch street, Philadelphia, Pa.

9. We hear with constantly increasing delight of the growing effectiveness of Rev W D Parr, D D, of our Conference, as one of the Church Extension Secretaries, and we will heartily welcome him to our charges as the representative of the above Society.

We appreciate the visit and the masterful address of Dr James M King, Corresponding Secretary of the Board of Church Extension. We heartily invite him to visit our Conference again.

We mention with gratitude to God the special bequest of $2,000 by the late Hiram Sulser, of Fifth-street Church, Richmond, and commend his godly example as a faithful steward to all our people.

EARLE NAFTZGER, Secretary.

CLASS MEETINGS.

As the Class Meeting has been a great blessing to Methodism, we, therefore, urge:

1. Our Pastors to emphasize the importance of the Class Meeting to the spiritual life of the Church.
2. Our members to attend, as far as possible, the means of grace.
3. Our Class Leaders to read the prescribed reading course for Class Leaders, that they may become wise and intelligent leaders.

COMMITTEE.

CHURCH INSURANCE.

Every church and parsonage should be insured. Neglect to comply with the Discipline and common sense in this particular brings discredit upon the church, and often serious financial loss to a faithful membership, which the payment of a trifling amount each year to our company would avoid.

The report of the Board of Insurance which supervises the operations of the National Mutual Church Insurance Company of Chicago, shows that our churches are rapidly availing themselves of the protection provided by the General Conference.

The business at the first of the year had grown to over eighteen million dollars, and includes every state and territory in the Union, five of them having largely over one million dollars each. Losses aggregating $72,177.74 had been paid without a day's delay in any case, and although over two hundred thousand dollars were left in the the hands of the policy holders until needed, which the old line companies would have collected and put out at interest, dividends have been returned, aggregating much more than the average realized by all the stockholders in the old line companies of the United States for the past twenty years.

The Resources of the company amounting to $233,564.48 include Cash Assets of $34,635.57. All losses in process of settlement, including estimate of all Unadjusted Losses were $5,406.60, and all other Accounts Payable, $2,377.44. The Cash Reserve, which, under the stringent law of Illinois, must be the same as is required of the old line companies, had been increased during the year $7,593.98, bringing the total up to $26,056.75, and the Cash Surplus was increased $4,287.83. The Assets above all Liabilities were $225,780.48. It will be seen that while the terms are much more favorable than those granted by the old line companies, the first care of the management is to maintain such a sound financial condition as must command the confidence of the most conservative.

Under a decision of the Supreme Court of the United States it is entirely legal for our churches in this State to insure with the company.

For further particulars address Henry P Magill, Secretary, No. 57 Washington street, Chicago, Ill.

EDUCATION.

THEOLOGICAL SCHOOLS.

We advise all young men preparing for the ministry to attend one of our Theological Schools.

Our School at Boston, Mass., is unsurpassed. It is the oldest of our Theological Schools. Duly qualified candidates for the ministry can here enjoy the best Biblical and Theological training for three years without tuition. Students with some experience can support themselves by preaching in a charge, as there are about seventy-five pastoral charges in or near Boston to be supplied by students. This School has a complete equipment and the literary opportunities of the city are a decided advantage. The numerous advantages of this School should be carefully considered by our young men preparing for the ministry.

Garrett Biblical Institute, the Theological Department of Northwestern University, is delightfully and favorably situated on the shore of Lake Michigan, in the classic city of Evanston. This School is fortunate in the possession of a large and well-selected library, and, in addition, offers its students access to the excellent library of the University. Its Faculty consists of scholarly and godly men. This institution is in every respect the peer of the best in the land. About one-hundred student appointments are available to energetic and capable preachers. This affords great opportunity for self-support.

Drew Theological Seminary, at Madison, N J, is one of the greatest and best-equipped Schools in all Protestantism. Situated in the midst of a great metropolitan Conference, near the city of New York, it affords the finest opportunities to young ministers desiring to supply charges. Tuition is free; other expenses are at the minimum. "Drew Settlement" at New York city furnishes rare opportunity to do missionary work. Free scholarships in Columbia and New York Universities are extended to those desiring a Doctorate in Philosophy; while in theological study Drew keeps in touch with all advanced thought in Europe and America, yet "proves all things and holds fast only that which is good."

AMERICAN UNIVERSITY.

The American University, located at Washington, D C, has been founded by the recommendation of the General Conference. Through the wisdom of Bishop John F Hurst, D D, LL D, the first Chancellor, and the very efficient Board of Trustees, this great University has been placed upon a sure foundation. We will ever remember the efficient labors of Bishop Hurst. We do heartily commend the election of Bishop C C McCabe, D D, as the Chancellor of the University. It is a post-graduate University and a national fortress of Christian forces, where development of the highest character and training for original investigation may be pursued under favorable auspices. We will hail with delight the day when its doors shall be thrown open to all the world, and we prayerfully trust that the time will speedily come when it will be no longer necessary to go to other lands to seek these exalted educational privileges.

BOARD OF EDUCATION.

We most heartily commend the excellent work for higher Christian education which is being accomplished for the Church through the Board of Education. We especially approve of the emphasis laid upon educational excellence and genuine spirituality as the true ideal for our schools. We note with satisfaction the report of special gifts to the Board of Education, and unreservedly commend it to the benevolence of our people, particularly those who are able to make large gifts.

We urge that Children's Day be observed and a collection taken in every charge, according to the Discipline.

During the past year the Board added sixteen hundred and eighty-nine students to the amount of eighty-five thousand, eight hundred and eighty dollars. The contributions of our Conference received by the Board for the year were one thousand five hundred and four dollars.

We commend the officers of the Board for their energy in collecting loans, and we urge all beneficiaries within our own Conference to make as prompt payment as possible. We commend the Christian Student and the Cokesbury Guild to all the people. We are especially pleased that the Board of Education proposes to celebrate the bi-centenary of John Wesley's birth, and we promise our hearty co-operation.

DEPAUW UNIVERSITY.

The closing year has been one of unusual prosperity in all departments of college work. We rejoice in the successful completion and dedication of the "D W Minshall Laboratory" last June, and hail with delight the fact that our beloved University is now able to afford advantages for scientific research equal to the best in the land.

It is gratifying to know that the enrollment exceeds that of last year and that the moral and spiritual atmosphere is good.

We believe our University should be richly endowed, and we believe Indiana Methodism will do this as soon as intelligent conviction takes hold of our wealthy laymen. For the accomplishment of this end we assure the Rev C E Line, D D, that we will give him our hearty support in his special work as Financial Agent, and will welcome him to our charges and pulpits. We appreciate the very excellent work he has done and rejoice in the good measure of success which has attended his year's labor, and respectfully request the Bishop to appoint him Financial Agent for DePauw University for another year.

Rev W H Hickman, D D, the Chancellor of the University, has tendered his resignation, to take effect at the end of the present college year. We rejoice in the large measure of success with which his efforts have been rewarded. He has been faithful, untiring and zealous in all of his work. The important trusts committed to him were carefully guarded. In the new field of labor to which he is called we wish him the highest measure of success, and we pray that Divine favor may ever be upon him.

We recommend that DePauw Day, the second Sunday in May, be observed in all our charges, and, further, that the sum of fifteen cents per member be apportioned to all our charges for coming year, said sum to constitute our regular collection for education.

TRUSTEE FOR DEPAUW.

We recommend that the Rev W D Parr, D D, be elected Trustee for a term of three years from September 1, 1903.

VISITORS.

We recommend that the following visitors be appointed:

Visitors to DePauw: the Rev A S Preston, for a period of two years from September 1, 1903, and the Rev L J Naftzger, to fill the unexpired term of the Rev A W Lamport, D D.

Visitors to Garrett Biblical Institute: Rev H N Herrick, D D, and Rev J C Dorwin.

Visitor to Boston School of Theology: Rev W A Griest.

Visitor to Drew Theological Seminary: Rev E E Neal.

EPWORTH LEAGUE.

The loving kindness of the Father's care and guidance, the gracious outpouring of the free grace of our dear Savior and the helping and empowering of the Holy Spirit, has certainly been manifest in the blessing upon the Epworth League interests of the Conference of which the Cabinet organization brings record and expressions of thankfulness.

From reports coming from the various Chapters, it is plain that the young people of our church are pressing forward to obtain and maintain for themselves and help others obtain, the highest New Testament standard of Christian life and experience, which fits them for assuming the large responsibility that comes to them in the encouragement of Bible study, development along Missionary and Evangelistic lines, and serving the church in the important work of bringing the world to Christ.

The Annual Convention, held at Bluffton in October, proved a perfect pentecostal season of blessing and power, giving the much needed equipment for work during the revival season of the past winter.

The following officers were elected to serve two years, it being the voice of the convention to hereafter hold its sessions bi-ennially:

President—H H Deam, Bluffton.
First Vice-President—Rev C W Smith, Mishawaka.
Second Vice-President—Mrs C H Brown, Union City.
Third Vice-President—Rev P Ross Parrish, Logansport.
Fourth Vice-President—Lawrence Crull, Huntington.
Secretary—J F Snyder, LaGrange.
Treasurer—J W Clark, Selma.
Junior Superintendent—Mrs J C Dorwin, Fort Wayne

Since the Conference has committed to us the responsibility of carrying forward the work of the Epworth League in the Conference, we most earnestly plead for the hearty co-operation of all the Districts of the Conference. We ask the pastors and all Epworth League workers to help make the coming year's work one of the best in the history of the Young People's organization of our church.

The Cabinet pledges loyalty to the Conference in all departments of the work and asks the counsel and prayers of all well wishers of the cause of Christ.

J F Snyder, Secretary for Cabinet.

FREEDMAN'S AID AND SOUTHERN EDUCATION SOCIETY.

Your Committee on Freedmen's Aid and Southern Educational Society, beg leave to report as follows:

The work which this great Society is doing for the uplift of the millions of the needy white and colored people of the South, deserves not only the cordial support of all Christian people, but of all patriots as well.

The results already secured are almost phenominal. Thousands of Christian teachers, ministers, physicians, nurses, and men and women trained in our industrial schools, have gone forth to help in the elevation of their unfortunate brethern and the larger life of the republic.

We call special attention to the fact that there were more than three thousand six hundred students in the industrial department alone last year, and would respectfully request our pastors to emphasize this fact in presenting the work of the Society to the people.

It gives us peculiar pleasure to state that for the first time in the history of our Conference, the full apportionment of $4,700 has been raised.

We desire to call attention to the fact also, that the Christian Educator will be sent to all persons giving one dollar or more to the cause, and we suggest that the pastors send in the names of all such subscribers as soon as the collection is taken. Tracts also, covering every phase of the Society's work, can be had free of charge by writing the Secretaries.

Your committee would make special mention of a recent gift of $1,000 to this Society, from Miss A McDonald, of Upland, Ind., one of our Elect Ladies, and express the conviction that many of our people, in this substantial way, could give added impetus to the work of this great Society.

We also request the Presiding Elders to apportion to the several Districts our apportionment, and pledge ourselves that we will do our best to raise the same in full.

Your committee but voices the sentiment of the Conference, when we say that we heard with pleasure the masterful address of Dr Mason, one of the Secretaries of the Society, and pray God's blessing upon him and the far reaching work in which he is engaged.

Signed by the Committee.

HOSPITAL AND DEACONESS HOME.

We are gratified to report that the work of securing funds for our State Hospital and Deaconess Home has gone steadily forward during the year.

The subscriptions now amount to $70,000. Four Districts of the State have now presented the claim and the results have been gratifying, and show that when the State shall have been covered, we shall have funds to establish the work on a broad basis. The trustees expect to begin during the summer the construction of the plant, and it is now important that we reach all our people with the opportunity to help. We express our belief in the efficiency of the now inaugurated district plan, and we recommend that this Conference, by the adoption of this report, plan for district days through the presiding elders and pastors, and with the view to having the help of the State Corresponding Secretary.

We recommend that the Rev Leslie J Naftzger be continued as a trustee, and that Albert B Cline be a trustee in place of Chas L Henry.

We bid God-speed to the Rev W R Halstead, D D, Corresponding Secretary, and will heartily welcome him as a co-worker among us.

Signed.

ERNEST E NEAL,
MRS L A RETTS,
H J NORRIS,
LESLIE J NAFTZGER,
MRS L H BUNYAN.

We, members of the committee, have carefully examined the articles of association of the Methodist Episcopal Hospital and Deaconess Home of the State of Indiana, and also the proposed amended articles, which the Board of Directors submits to the Conferences for their action, and we hereby express our judgment that said proposed amendments do not at all change the character and purpose of the institution, but they add several features which will contribute to its more efficient administration, and especially do they guard more carefully funds given for endowment.

We therefore recommend and urge the adoption by this Conference of these amended articles, and that they be printed in the Minutes.

MISSIONS.

Feeling that the Missionary Cause is the paramount issue before the minds and upon the hearts of the hosts constituting the membership of our great Church, we, therefore, recommend the following for adoption and action:

First. We, as Pastors, will, in the early part of the Conference year, plan and provide not only to raise our full apportionment but to place all the charges on the line of one dollar ($1.00) per member for Missions.

To this end we will call into action our Missionary Committee, the Epworth League Committee on Missions, and will organize our Sunday Schools into Missionary Societies with a full corps of officers, hold regular sessions of the Society, and present the cause of Missions in that way which we deem, in our judgment, will be productive of the best practical returns for the cause.

Second. We will obtain from headquarters a supply of literature to aid us in giving to our people Missionary information, and thus, by the blessing of our Divine Lord, create a holy enthusiasm in the hearts of our people to carry out in fact, as well as in profession and spirit, the great commission of Him who commanded, "Go ye into all the world and preach my Gospel to every creature."

Third. That the officers of last year be re-elected.

JOHN J FRED,
F M KEMPER,
E L JONES,
J M CANSE,
M E NETHERCUT,
M J MAGOR,
T M GUILD.

PARSONAGES AND FURNITURE.

We, your Committee on Parsonages and Furniture, desire to express the highest satisfaction with the progress our splendid Conference is making in the securing of parsonage homes, and to again lay this important matter upon the hearts of our people of charges not yet supplied, and, so far as practicable, comply with the recommendations of the General Conference (Paragraph 318 of Discipline) in reference to the building of parsonages on such charges.

We reaffirm the resolutions of last year:

Resolved, That the Presiding Elder be requested, at the first Quarterly Conference, to inquire into the condition of each parsonage.

That the local Committee on Parsonage and Furniture be urged to purchase one or more articles of heavy furniture each year.

That the trustees of our parsonage property be requested to provide means for insuring and keeping the buildings in repair and for beautifying the grounds.

PREACHERS' AID SOCIETY.

We, the Committee on the salary of the General Secretary of the Prachers' Aid Society, recommend,

First. That the salary be nine hundred and fifty ($950) dollars.

Second. That traveling and incidental expenses be allowed and the amount determined by the Board of Managers.

Third. That the above amounts be paid out of the funds of the society.

Signed.

CONSTITUTION AND BY-LAWS OF THE PREACHERS' AID SOCIETY.

CONSTITUTION.

ARTICLE I.—NAME AND SEAL.

SECTION 1. The corporate name of this organization shall be, "The Preachers' Aid Society of the North Indiana Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church." It is organized under the provisions of an Act of the Legislature of the State of Indiana, entitled, "An Act Concerning the Organization of Voluntary Associations, and Repealing Former Laws in Relation Thereto," approved February 12, 1855, and "an act amendatory thereto," approved February 10, 1863.

SEC. 2. The corporate seal of this society shall be a metallic impression, with the following words and letters, to-wit: "The Preachers' Aid Soc., N. Ind. Conf. M. E. Church."

ARTICLE II.—OBJECT AND FUNDS.

SECTION 1. The object of this society is to raise and perpetually maintain a fund for the relief of the preachers of said Conference, and their families, in accordance with the provisions and restrictions of this Constitution and in harmony with the spirit of paragraph two hundred and ninety-three (293) of the Discipline, of the Methodist Episcopal Church, of nineteen hundred (1900.)

SEC. 2. Said fund shall consist of:

First. Funds received by this Conference from the division of the capital stock of "The Preachers' Aid Society of the Indiana Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, incorporated by an act approved February 12, 1841."

Second. Amounts specifically appropriated to this object from the Centenary contributions of 1866, of said Church, and also those of the twentieth century.

Third. The money received as dues or fees from the members of the Society.

Fourth. Devises, bequests, gifts and donations of property, real and personal, also gifts and donations of bonds, stocks, monies and anything else of value that may legitimately come into the possession of and be received by said Society.

SEC. 3. The fund shall be permanent, but all the proceeds arising from rents, interest or any investment that brings an income, shall, after the payment of all incidental expenses, be distributed annually as herein directed.

ARTICLE III.—MEMBERSHIP.

SEC. 1. The membership of this Society shall consist of two classes: (1) Beneficiary and (2) Non-Beneficiary.

SEC. 2. Beneficiary Members. Effective members of the North Indiana Conference, who have not been in full connection in the said Conference over eight years subsequent to the year 1903, are eligible to membership in the first class.

Nevertheless provided that no one shall be excluded from membership, who had previous to the year 1903 become a life member, under the former constitution, by the payment of ten dollars or more.

Furthermore provided that no one who is now a superannuated minister of the North Indiana Conference, or a widow of a deceased minister of said Conference, and has been paying annual dues of one dollar a year to said Society, shall be cut off from its benefits if he or she shall hereafter fully discharge all indebtedness of unpaid dues, and shall also pay twelve per cent. of any benefits which may be received from the Society, to the permanent fund of said Society.

Should the payments of any one at any time, including former payments of annual dues to the permanent fund, aggregate one hundred dollars, then further payments shall not be required, and a certificate of life membership shall be issued to such persons.

Furthermore should any one after April, 1903, become a member of the North Indiana Conference by transfer, or otherwise, who is beyond the age of fifty years, he shall not become a beneficiary member of this Society.

SEC. 3. Non-Beneficiary Members.—Any lay member or friend of the Church and ministry is eligible to membership in this second class.

SEC. 4. Beneficiary Members, Fees and Dues.—1. The annual fee for beneficiary members shall be not less than one per cent. of the cash salary which the said member received during the year, just closing, as reported to the annual Conference, until his payment shall amount in the aggregate to one hundred dollars. Or he may elect to pay in annual installments of not less than ten dollars each, or in larger amounts, until he has paid in one hundred dollars, when he shall, in either case, receive a certificate of life membership, not transferable, and non-forfeitable except as indicated by this Constitution.

2. Any member who may fail to pay regularly annual dues or installments shall pay interest on the same at the rate of six per cent. for the delayed time.

3. If at the expiration of ten years from April 1, 1903, or from the date of being received as a member of this Society hereafter, any member has not paid the full amount of one hundred dollars into the Society, then any lacking amount or deficit shall be charged to him with interest, from that time forth, at the rate of six per cent., until all is paid, and said interest shall be paid annually.

4. If any member of this Society fails, during a period of three years, to pay either principal or interest due from him, his name shall be reported to the annual meeting of the Society and may be stricken from the roll of membership by a vote of two-thirds of the members present.

5. Those who have paid into the permanent fund of the Society annual dues of one dollar, or larger amounts, shall have credit for what they have paid.

6. Those who have already paid one hundred dollars into the Society, shall be entitled to a certificate of life membership.

SEC. 5. Non-Beneficiary Members, Fees and Dues.—1. The annual membership fee in this class is five dollars; but one may become a life member by the payment of fifty dollars at one time, or a life patron by the payment of one hundred dollars in the same manner.

2. The members or patrons in this class shall be entitled to participate in all of the proceedings of the Society, provided they are members of the Methodist Episcopal Church.

3. Notes bearing annual interest and payable within five years may be received from life members or life patrons.

SEC. 6. Transfers, Locations, Withdrawals, etc.—1. In the event that any minister who is a member of this Society, and has paid one hundred dollars, or is in process of paying that amount into the permanent fund of this organization, shall be transferred to another annual Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church. He shall not thereby forfeit his claims as a beneficiary member, but may receive its benefits upon the same conditions as if he had remained a member of the North Indiana Conference.

2. Should such transfer to another Conference elect to have refunded to him a part of the cash amount actually paid into the permanent fund, then two thirds of that amount shall be so refunded, thereby canceling all further claims upon said Society, but no part whatever shall be refunded from any credits that he may have had to the permanent fund from cash benefits.

3. If any transferred member fails to forward to this Society any amount of principal or interest due from him, then such per cent. of his credits to the permanent fund shall be made as will cover his indebtedness to said Society, and if he should allow his credits to become entirely absorbed, in that event he shall have no further claims upon the Society.

4. Should any member of this Society, who has paid or is in process of paying, one hundred dollars to said permanent fund, be located at his own request, or by action of the annual Conference in accordance with the provisions of the Discipline without his request, he shall have refunded to him, if he makes request within one year from the date of location, two-thirds of the cash amount actually paid by him to the permanent fund, but no part whatever shall be returned of cash benefits credited, thereby canceling all further claims upon the Society.

5. Any member of this Society who may withdraw from the Methodist Episcopal Church or who has been suspended or expelled from the annual Conference shall thereby forfeit his membership in this Society and all claim to its benefits and all that he may have paid into the Society. The same rule shall apply to any widow of a deceased minister who was a member of this body.

If, however, any one who has been suspended or expelled shall be restored, that one may again receive benefits, but not for the time elapsed during suspension or expulsion.

ARTICLE IV.—OFFICERS AND MANAGERS.

1. The officers of this Society shall be a President, Vice-President, Secretary, Treasurer, General Secretary, and five Managers.

2. The officers and managers shall be elected at the annual meetings of the Society, and shall hold their offices until the close of the next ensuing annual Conference, or until their successors are elected. They together shall constitute a Board of Control having full power to manage the affairs of the Society, subject to this Constitution.

3. The Treasurer and three Managers shall be laymen resident in the city of Muncie or vicinity.

4. Before entering upon the duties of his office, the Board of Control shall provide, through a reliable Surety Company, or in some other satisfactory manner, that the Treasurer may give bond and security in the penal sum of fifteen thousand dollars, which may at any time be increased at the discretion of the Board. Said bond shall be filed with the Secretary.

5. The Board shall have power to make By-Laws for its own government not inconsistent with this Constitution.

6. Any vacancy in office caused by death, resignation, or otherwise, during the interim of the annual Conference, may be filled by the Board.

ARTICLE V.—Benefits.

Section 1.—1. The net income of this Society shall be distributed annually to such of its beneficiary members as are designated by the annual Conference to receive assistance from the Conference Claimant Fund, or necessitous.

2. If any member shall become a claimant before he has paid into the permanent fund of the Society the full sum of one hundred dollars, then not less than one-half of the benefits which would accrue to him or to his family shall be withheld each year and turned into the permanent fund, until he shall have one hundred dollars to his credit, when there shall be issued to him or to his wife a certificate of life membership.

Sec. 2.—1. The proceeds of this Society shall be distributed according to the following basis:

(1) A superannuated minister shall be allowed annually ten dollars for each year of his effective service.

(2) A widow shall be allowed annually five dollars for each year she was the wife of a minister during his effective service.

(3) Each child under sixteen years of age, of a deceased minister, shall be allowed annually two dollars for each year of the father's effective service, provided nevertheless that no widow and children shall receive more than the father might have received had he been a claimant.

2. Before any minister, or his family, may receive benefits from this Society he shall present to the Disbursing Committee, or to any whose duty it is to distribute the funds of the Society, a certificate signed by the Secretary of the Conference or Conferences, one for each Conference of which he may have been a member, showing definitely and accurately the number of years of effective service while in full connection.

3. If the claimant is a widow, her certificate shall show the number of years that she was the wife of an effective minister in full connection with an annual Conference.

4. A certificate for a child or children of a deceased minister shall show the number of years of the father's effective service and also the date of birth of each child.

5. No year shall be counted as effective when any one was receiving benefits as a Superannuated or Supernumerary minister.

ARTICLE VI.—Annual and Special Meetings.

Section 1.—1. The annual meeting of the Board of Control shall be held in the city of Muncie, within the thirty days next preceding the session of the annual Conference, upon the call of the President or the highest ranking officer of the Board. Special meetings of the Board may be called at any time, by the President or any three members thereof, upon reasonable notice being given to all members of the Board. In all meetings of the Board five shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business.

2. The annual meetings of the Society shall be held at the seat of the annual Conference, at ten o'clock in the forenoon of the second day of the session, the President of the Conference presiding. This meeting shall be for the purpose of electing officers and managers for the ensuing year; to receive and pass upon the annual report of the Board of Control, made out according to the order found in the accompanying By-Laws, and to transact any other business pertaining to the interests of the Society. This meeting may adjourn to any other day or days of the Conference session; or, in an emergency, the President and Secretary may call a meeting of the Society on any day before the Conference closes; and it shall require the presence of thirty-five members to constitute a quorum.

3. In the interim of the annual Conference sessions, meetings of the Society may be called by the President, Secretary and any three members of the Board, twenty days' notice having been given in the official Church paper (Weekly Advocate), having the largest circulation within the bounds of the Conference.

ARTICLE VII.—Investment of Funds.

The Board shall, at its annual meeting, appoint an Investing Committee, of three laymen, who shall reside in the city of Muncie, Indiana, who, with the Treasurer, shall have discretionary power over the investments of the Society, subject to the following restrictions:

All loans of two hundred dollars or less shall be secured by two responsible names, who shall be joint drawers of the paper, and said loans, if not paid at maturity, shall be renewed annually to the entire satisfaction of the Investing Committee; provided that at no time shall the aggregate of such loans exceed the sum of one thousand dollars.

All loans over two hundred dollars shall be secured by mortgage on unincumbered, imperishable real estate, the cash value of which shall be at least double the amount borrowed, and the net income of which shall exceed the interest.

The Investing Committee may purchase good first-mortgage paper, secured by mortgage on first-class inside city property, which shall be worth at least double the amount of the sum loaned, and shall be properly protected by good fire insurance, and the net income of which shall be double the interest. The committee may also make loans, subject to the above conditions and requirements, on inside city property. But in every case abstracts must be furnished that shall satisfy the committee that the title to the property is clear and unincumbered, where loans are sought or mortgages purchased. The committee shall have the right to purchase United States, State, county, city, municipal bonds, bearing not less than six per cent. interest, if the funds of the Society can not be loaned or used as provided above.

ARTICLE VIII.—The General Secretary.

1. The Society, at its regular annual meeting, shall elect a General Secretary, in the same manner it does the other officers of the Society. By virtue of his office he shall be a member of the Board of Control, and shall work under the direction of the Board. The Society, upon recommendation of the Board, shall determine whether the General Secretary is to give his entire time to the work of the Society. It shall determine his salary and provide for its payment, either by a pro rata tax on the membership or by directing the Board of Control to pay it from the funds of the Society. In either case the salary shall be payable in quarterly installments.

2. All revenues and everything of value that comes into the hands of the General Secretary shall be passed over to the Treasurer, who shall receipt therefor. When practicable, reports shall be made quarterly.

ARTICLE IX.—Change of Constitution.

This Constitution, with its accompanying By-Laws, may be changed or amended, at an annual meeting of the Society, by a two-thirds vote of the members present, such changes or amendments having been first recommended by a majority of all the members of the Board of Control.

BY-LAWS.

Section 1. The officers shall perform the same general duties at all meetings of the Board of Control that they do in the meetings of the Society.

Sec. 2. The Secretary shall keep a full and permanent record, in book form, of all the transactions of business, both of the Society and the Board of Control. He shall keep in his possession the corporate seal of the Society, all reports made either to the Society or to the Board, and all other important books and papers not belonging to the Treasurer or General Secretary.

Sec. 3. The General Secretary shall keep a list of those who have been granted certificates of life membership, and also a list of those who are in the process of becoming life members. He shall credit them with the payments they make from year to year, charging them six per cent. interest on all deferred payments until paid, this interest to be paid into the fund for disbursement, and not the fund for investment. The General Secretary shall make out all certificates for life membership, which shall bear the signature of the President and General Secretary of the Society.

Sec. 4. Any note executed to the Society by any of its members and remaining unpaid, shall be deducted from the allowance made to him, his widow, or children; but neither the Society nor the Board of Control shall have the power to apply the amounts so appropriated to the payment of any other claim.

Sec. 5. The report of the Board of Control to the annual meeting of the Society shall embrace the following items:

1. Total Permanent Fund at last report.
2. Total Permanent Fund at present.
3. Changes explained in detail.
4. Amounts now invested, with kinds of security.
5. Net proceeds reported last year.
6. Net proceeds for the present year.
7. Differences explained in detail.
8. Any other items necessary to complete the exhibit of the financial status of the Society.

REPORT OF THE SECRETARY OF THE PREACHERS' AID SOCIETY.

Noblesville, Indiana, April 9, 1903.

The Secretary of the Preachers' Aid Society of the North Indiana Conference begs leave to report as follows:

Money loaned on unincumbered real estate	$21,145
Money loaned on approved personal security	1,550
Cash on hand	3,425
Good notes in the hands of the Agent	3,127
Due from the Mrs Chipman estate	1,000
Cash paid in Agent's hands	962
Real estate owned by the Society, value	4,000
After-death bonds held by the Society, and considered good	10,475
Total assets	$45,684

A number of wills have been executed making this Society a beneficiary, and from which a considerable sum will come into our treasury in the future.

The amount turned over to the Disbursing Committee this year for our Conference Claimants is $1,350. This is the largest sum that the interest on the funds loaned has netted us in any one year, for our Superannuates.

Respectfully submitted,

C U Wade, Secretary.

REVIVAL AND CAMP MEETING INTERESTS.

Believing that Methodism has lost energy and power by releasing its hold, in some measure, on the Camp Meeting idea, so popular and helpful in the early days of the Church, opportunities to reinstate these days of pentecostal power ought not to be neglected for the mid-summer revival season,

At this time there comes to us a rare opportunity for endorsement and promise of helpful support to the Camp Meeting and Soul Culture service, arranged for by the Conference Secretary, Rev Leslie J Naftzger, and the Conference Quartet and Pastors of the Conference, in the opening days of the Island Park Assembly, to be held at Rome City, Indiana, commencing July 10 and continuing until July 22. The service of the able and experienced evangelist, Rev E F Walker, D D, has been engaged for these services.

The Assembly management has kindly made appropriation for the expense of this meeting, so that no financial obligation need be assumed or additional expense incurred.

The railroads within the territory have provided half-fare rates and ample arrangements for caring for the people on the most reasonable terms.

We would, therefore, urge upon our people and pledge for ourselves a hearty support and prayerful co-operation in this very worthy cause.

SUNDAY SCHOOLS AND TRACTS.

1. We recognize in the Sunday School one of the most important factors in the religious and educational life not only of our own age, but of the ages to come, since the Sunday School teaches the Bible and brings the Gospel to vast multitudes in the respective periods of childhood.

The total Sunday School population in the United States is more than 12,000,000, of whom there are in the Methodist Episcopal Church over 32,115 Sunday Schools with 350,000 officers and teachers and more than 717,703 scholars. And as we have 472 Sunday Schools, 7,366 officers and teachers, 52,857 scholars within the bounds of the North Indiana Conference, we feel that the greatness of our responsibility can not be over-estimated; and

Whereas, The Sunday School Union of our Church offers to share with us its wonderful resources, and asks in return a small contribution; therefore, be it

Resolved, That the Pastors look well to the interests of the Sunday School, and urge the use of our Methodist literature, so ably edited by Dr T B Neely, and that prayerful attention be given the selection of teachers and officers who watch over our children.

Resolved, That a faithful effort be made to meet the small apportionment for each charge; and

Resolved, That all special days, as Children's Day, Good Tidings Day and Easter, be observed, and that each Temperance lesson be permitted its place in the moral instruction of our schools.

The following list of officers of the Sunday School Society is named:

President—J M Cause.
Secretary—J L Hutchens.
Treasurer—I R Godwin.
Managers—T M Guild, M S Marble, J W Paschall.

ON TRACTS.

The Tract Society has had a most prosperous year; has given away 11,000,000 pages of Tracts in the United States alone, besides sending $10,000 to aid our missions in the publication of literature in foreign lands; and

WHEREAS, The Tract Society needs the sum of $50,000 per annum in order to carry on its great work through the Church and the world,

Resolved, That we raise the full amount apportioned to our Conference for the ensuing year.

W E INGALLS, Chairman.

G W KEISLING.

SOCIAL AND MORAL QUESTIONS.

We, your Committee on Social and Moral Questions, submit the following report:

WHEREAS, The prosperity of our Church depends largely on our attitude toward certain moral and social questions; therefore, be it Resolved, first, That we recognize the necessity for greater attention, both by education and law-enforcement, to the preservation of our American Sabbath. We especially deplore the widely extended desecration of the Sabbath by its use for a game, innocent in itself, base ball; also Sunday excursions and all other practices that tend to degrade the day to a mere holiday. In this connection we commend the Sunday League of America in its efforts to preserve the sanctity of this holy day.

Resolved, second, That we will discourage the granting of divorces on other than Scriptural grounds, and the remarrying of such persons, contrary to the Discipline of our Church.

Resolved, third, That we urge our people to abstain from questionable methods of raising money for church purposes.

Resolved, fourth, That inasmuch as the Word of God enjoins us to "abstain from all appearance of evil," we will urge our people to avoid all questionable amusements.

J S CAIN, Chairman.

SUSTENTATION.

Your Committee report as follows:

1. That there is need for additional help in the support of pastors who serve the weaker charges of our Conference.

2. That we have no other resources other than these collections for this support.

3. That all our pastors and people should be impressed with the need of this cause; that there is a moral obligation upon us to share with those of our brethren who are inadequately supported by the small salaries paid those hard-working pastors.

4. We recommend that $2,000 be apportioned to the districts for the ensuing year; that the amounts collected be applied in the several districts by a committee of three, of which the Presiding Elder shall be chairman.

5. We recommend that a list of the charges so aided, with the amounts received in each charge, be published in the annual Minutes of the Conference.

6. We desire to state that the work of auditing the amounts received and disbursed was also referred to the Committee on Sustentation, and that they were found correct, although the amounts ($118) received by the Presiding Elder of the Goshen District were not disbursed, but his widow feels confident that the money was deposited with his own bank account. Sister Kemp, being administratrix of Brother Kemp's estate, desires that the account be filed against the estate and that she will settle the same. We, therefore, desire to recommend the appointment of the Presiding Elder of the Goshen District a committee of one to file and collect said claim.

TEMPERANCE.

1. We reaffirm our unswerving allegiance to the position held by the Methodist Episcopal Church concerning the legalized liquor traffic as expressed in our discipline.

2. Resolved, That the thanks of this Conference are due to Congress for the defeat of the attempt to repeal the Anti-Canteen Law, for the additional appropriation of one-half million dollars for the establishment and maintenance of the army post exchange, for the abolition of liquor selling from the Capital Building and immigrant stations. That we urge the passage of the Hepburn Bill, giving each State complete control of the liquor traffic in its borders.

3. Resolved further, That we assure Rev E C Dinwiddie, Legislative Superintendent of the American Anti-Saloon League, and Rev Wilbur F Crafts of the Statistical Bureau, of our appreciation of the value of the services they are rendering to the country at large, and assure them of our co-operation in all wisely directed efforts to unite and marshal the conscience of the Nation against the un-American Liquor Traffic.

4. Resolved, That we here express our hearty appreciation of the recent legislative victories in our own state, largely due to the efforts of the Anti-Saloon League. We rejoice in the enactment of the law prohibiting the sale of intoxicating liquors within a mile of any Soldiers' Home or army post.

We realize the gravity of the present situation, as we consider the statement of a State senator, in the Senate Chamber, to the effect that the liquor forces would secure the election of a legislature which would repeal the present remonstrance law. We therefore urge that support be given to men who favor the strengthening of our liquor laws rather than weakening them.

We indorse the idea made prominent by the Anti-Saloon League and kindred organizations in uniting all churches in organized effort against this evil, and rejoice with them in the closing up of more than five hundred saloons.

We recommend the appointment of L J Naftzger, B S Hollopeter, and Sherman Powell as trustees to represent us on the State Board of the Anti-Saloon League, and we further urge our brethern to open their churches and co-operate with those chosen to carry forward this work.

We further suggest that there be a revival of pledge signing, and greater encouragement given to total abstinence, recognizing that moral suasion is indispensable to the successful promotion of all forms of temperance movements.

Feeling the increasing importance of this work we respectfully ask that provision be made for a Temperance Anniversary, at the next session of our Conference.

CHESTEEN W SMITH, Secretary.

WOMAN'S FOREIGN MISSIONARY SOCIETY.

"The Lord has done great things for us, whereof we are glad."

The Woman's Foreign Missionary Society of North Indiana Conference rejoices in six new organizations of eighty-five members. Three of them are young ladies' societies. Ninety-five (95) King's Heralds are reported from four places. We do not have a complete list of Standard-Bearers, but they number more than five hundred. We have 105 women's organizations with 3,450 members.

Money was sent to our Conference Treasurer from thirty-one places where no members are reported.

We are supporting nine missionaries, one native preacher, seventy-eight girls, one widow, three day schools, Zenana work in Gonda, India, and medical work in Barielly, India.

For Thank-Offering and other services we have been greatly blest in having Miss Longstreet and Miss Todd, of China, Miss Newton, of Lucknow, India, and Mrs Mary C Nind, of Detroit.

Our women have given $1,713 as their Thank Offering. Kokomo Auxiliary received credit for the Darby bequest of $1,900 paid during the past year.

This money, together with the Thank Offering, will be used to pay for the splendid new building in Kolar, India. This building has been named "Darby Hall," in memory of the giver. The chapel in this building is named for Mrs M H Mendenhall, who for many years was our faithful, efficient Conference Treasurer.

Our Conference stands pledged for $10,500 for the Missionary year, beginning last September and closing next September. I trust every auxiliary is endeavoring to meet its pledge for this year by having a report, at your next district meeting, which shall be ten per cent. better than your report to last district meeting.

For the Conference (not the Missionary) year we submit the following financial report:

Fort Wayne District	$ 1,512 02
Goshen "	1,681 75
Kokomo "	2,913 93
Muncie "	2,497 67
Richmond "	1,201 64
Wabash "	1,347 86
Total Conference year	$11,154 87
Conference collection	19 87
Cash received, source unknown	65
Vouchers	4 40
Grand total	$11,179 79
Gain	$1,456 54

Kokomo District, not counting bequests, gained $146. This being the largest gain, it is the banner district of the Conference.

Respectfully submitted,

MRS C U WADE, Conference Secretary,
Muncie, Indiana.
MRS L K ROYER, Conference Treasurer,
Anderson, Indiana.

WOMAN'S HOME MISSIONARY SOCIETY.

The faithful efforts of our members have been rewarded, and it is a pleasure to report that we now have the largest number of members and the Treasurer's report shows the largest financial returns of any year in our history.

Last year we reported 56 Auxiliaries, 8 Circles, and 8 Bands, with a membership of 2,087. This year we have 63 Auxiliaries, 10 Circles, and 10 Bands, with a membership of 2,497 — a gain over last year of 410.

During the year Auxiliaries have been organized at Hudson, Poneto, Orland, Albion, Arcadia, Cadiz and College Corner; Young People's Circles at Park Place, Anderson and Elkhart; Bands at Mishawaka and Elkhart.

The following Life Members have been added: Mrs Catherine Raymer, Mrs Martha Light, Mrs Ganette Godfrey, Mrs Mary Steele and Miss Elizabeth Mohler. Two Reading Circles have been organized. The subscriptions to our periodicals have increased, and we now have 633 "Women's Home Missions" and 276 "Children's Home Missions."

Supplies have been sent to our frontier ministers and our industrial schools, valued at $2,236.13. In addition to our annual dues, we have paid the salary of one missionary and support seventeen girls in our industrial schools, paid for Deaconess work in our State $300, and have sent contributions to the following:

New building in Hawaiian Islands.
" " " San Francisco, Cal.
" " " Boaz, Ala.
" " " Rust Hall, Washington, D C.
" " " Mothers Jewels Home, York, Neb.
" " " Porto Rico.
" " " Alaska Hospital.

WOMAN'S WORK IN THE CHURCH.

The most active and efficient lay members in the Christian Church are the women. They compose the larger part of the membership, and are well represented in all the religious services. In official capacity they are always willing and efficient laborers. The various organized forms of Christian activity among the women of our Church, and which have the authoritative sanction of the Church, are in harmony with the will of God.

The Deaconesses are a consecrated band of Christian women who are doing a most blessed and helpful work. They shall receive every encouragement which is in our province to give.

We will encourage in every proper way the auxiliaries of the Woman's Home and Foreign Missionary Societies. We will welcome the visitation to our churches of any authorized representatives of either of these societies who may come in their interests.

RESOLUTIONS.

PROF J C MURRAY.

Resolved, That we hereby express our delight in the presence, at this Conference session, of our beloved brother, Prof J C Murray, of Gammon Theological Seminary; in his integrity as a man, his fidelity and ability as an instructor, denying himself, as he must, of many of the social advantages enjoyed by his brethren of the Conference. We express our pleasure in his success, and assure him of our prayers and encouragement in the continuance of his labors.

NATIVE WORKERS.

Resolved, first, That the Presiding Elders be requested to furnish the Secretary with a list of those persons or organizations that have during the year given enough for the support of native helpers or ministers in our Foreign Mission field, and that these lists be printed in the Conference Minutes.

Resolved, second, That the pastors be authorized to say to their congregations during the coming year that those who make contributions for the support of native helpers in our foreign field will be recognized in our Conference Minutes in the same manner as those who have given like sums this year.

REV W D PARR, D D.

We have heard from various sources, and with much pleasure, of the very efficient services of our beloved brother, Rev W D Parr, D D, in his new position as one of the Assistant Secretaries of the Church Extension Society of our Church. We are not surprised at his success in this new field of endeavor, for our knowledge of his ability and industry and his record in every charge in which he has labored, in our Conference, gave full assurance that he would be equal to all the difficult and exacting duties of this new sphere of labor and usefulness.

We recognize that our Conference has been honored by the selection of Dr Parr for this position, and honored still more by the eminent success he has achieved in his work, as described by Dr J M King, the Chief Secretary, in his eloquent address before our Conference.

We very earnestly recommend that the Bishops, at their next semi-annual meeting, to be held at Meadville, Pa., April 29, advance Dr Parr to the position of First Assistant Secretary, made vacant by the death of the greatly beloved Dr Manley S Hard.

We believe that Indiana Methodism, representing nearly two hundred thousand members, is entitled to this recognition, and the fact that Dr Parr is in the prime of his health, strength and vigor, and that his fitness for the position has been tested and found to be fully satisfactory, justify us making this recommendation with utmost unanimity and earnestness.

We request that this paper be sent by the Secretary of our Conference to Bishop J N Fitzgerald, D D, LL D, Secretary of the Board of Bishops, and also that it be published in our Conference Minutes.

CONFERENCE QUARTET.

With grateful and joyful hearts we acknowledge the keen pleasure and real profit afforded us by the music rendered during our session by our North Indiana Conference Quartet. Their rich voices blend perfectly and a fervent evangelical spirit carries their songs straight to the heart. They are great blessers as well as great entertainers. We are proud of them.

TIME OF NEXT SESSION OF THE CONFERENCE.

The Board of Bishops is hereby requested to place the opening of our next annual session not later than the first Wednesday in April, if they can do so in harmony with the other interests of their work.

We request that Bishop Walden present the substance of this resolution to the Board of Bishops.

THANKS.

To the North Indiana Annual Conference:

We, your Committee on Resolutions, respectfully present the following for adoption:

Resolved, That we do hereby sincerely appreciate the hearty hospitality extended to this Conference by the local church at Noblesville, as well as by the citizens generally, who have so kindly opened to us their homes.

That we thank the Rev B S Hollopeter for his untiring and thoughtful care for our every want, and for the skillful manner in which he and his committees have discharged their arduous duties.

That we extend our thanks to the other churches of Noblesville for favors extended, in the free use of their churches for the accommodation of our committees.

That we return thanks to the First National Bank for favors extended to our Treasurer in caring for our funds.

That we praise our Secretaries, the Statistical Secretaries, and the Treasurer and his assistants, for the faithful and skillful manner in which they have discharged their duties.

That we have greatly enjoyed the songs of the North Indiana Conference Quartet and return our thanks to the choir and to Miss Ella Truitt, organist, of the Noblesville Methodist Church, and to the others who have so sweetly sung our Redeemer's praises.

To the Noblesville Ledger for its excellent and faithful account of the proceedings of the Conference — one of the most accurate we have ever had.

That we tender our greetings to Mrs Walden and express our delight in her presence.

That we welcome, for the second time, our beloved Bishop Walden, expressing our appreciation of his sermon, lectures and exhortations, and our hope we may see him again as our president; that his years of activity in the Church may be prolonged; and that he and his estimable wife may find it light at eventide.

CHESTEEN SMITH.

ON APPRECIATION OF BISHOP WALDEN.

At the close of the Conference session the Presiding Elders, at a called meeting of the Cabinet, unanimously, by resolution, expressed their unqualified appreciation of the faithful and painstaking service of Bishop Walden in arranging the appointments for the coming year. The weak charges and the ministers receiving small salaries were as certain of receiving a patient hearing from him as the stronger charges and the men receiving the larger salaries. His incessant labor to do the best possible for the charges, the ministers and their families won for him such admiration from the Presiding Elders as is seldom, if ever, surpassed.

In view of the faithful service he performed in making the appointments, the Presiding Elders feel that some expression of appreciation is due him from them, and they, therefore, request that this testimonial be printed in the Conference Minutes.

H N Herrick,
For the Presiding Elders.

RESOLUTION FOR AMENDMENT OF ARTICLES OF ASSOCIATION OF THE METHODIST EPISCOPAL HOSPITAL AND DEACONESS' HOME OF THE STATE OF INDIANA.

Resolved, That the Articles of Association of the Methodist Episcopal Hospital and Deaconess' Home of the State of Indiana, be amended to read as follows:

Amend Article III so that the same will read as follows:

ARTICLE III.

OBJECT.

The object of this association is to establish and maintain hospitals for the treatment of sick, wounded and injured persons, and for the care of the infirm, and a school for the education and training of nurses. Such institution may be known as a Deaconess' Home.

Amend Article IV so that the same will read as follows:

ARTICLE IV.

MEMBERS.

The members of this association shall be all members in good standing of the Methodist Episcopal Church of the State of Indiana.

Amend Article V so that the same will read as follows:

ARTICLE V.

TRUSTEES.

The business and prudential concerns of this association shall be managed by a board of eighteen Trustees. Said Trustees shall be chosen in the following manner: Each of the three annual conferences of the Methodist Episcopal Church of Indiana, namely, the North Indiana Conference, the Indiana Conference, and the Northwest Indiana Conference, shall elect, at its annual session, three Trustees, two of whom shall be laymen and one of whom shall be a minister. They shall hold office for three years, provided that the term of office of only one of such trustees from each conference shall expire each year, and the order of their election shall be arranged accordingly. Each of the Women's Home Missionary Societies of the above conferences shall elect at its annual meeting two Trustees, one of whom shall be the conference corresponding secretary of such society. They shall hold office for the term of three years, provided that the terms of not more than two of said Trustees, out of the six chosen by said Women's Home Missionary Societies, shall expire with each year, and the order of their election shall be arranged accordingly by agreement between said societies. The three remaining Trustees shall be elected by the Board of Trustees of this association at its annual meeting, provided that one of the Trustees so chosen shall be elected from the territory of each of the three annual conferences of the Methodist Episcopal Church of Indiana above mentioned. Said Trustees shall hold office for three years, provided that the term of office of only one Trustee shall expire with each year, and the order of their election shall be arranged accordingly. Vacancies occurring in the Board of Trustees from death, resignation, or otherwise, between the annual sessions of any of the bodies above mentioned, may be filled by the Board of Trustees until the next session of the body by whom said retiring Trustee was elected. The term of office of each Trustee shall commence at the next meeting of the Board of Trustees held after his or her election, and shall expire as above provided, except that in the event of failure or delay in the election or qualification of a successor, such Trustee shall hold over until his or her successor is elected and qualifies.

Amend Article VI so that the same will read as follows:

ARTICLE VI.

ANNUAL MEETING — ELECTION OF OFFICERS.

The Board of Trustees shall hold an annual meeting for the election of officers of this association for the ensuing year at such time and place as shall be fixed in the by-laws adopted by said Trustees. The officers so chosen shall be a President, Vice-President, Secretary, Treasurer, Superintendent and an Executive Committee. Their duties shall be defined by the by-laws.

Amend Article VII so that the same will read as follows:

ARTICLE VII.

FUNDS.

The funds of this association shall be an endowment fund, and a current expense and building fund.

Money or property given for endowment shall be held only for permanent investment, the income of which shall be used for the support of the Hospital and the Home. The principal of the endowment fund shall be kept in perpetuity, separate from the other funds of the association, and it shall not be used for any purpose except such investment. In order to conserve and make productive the endowment, the Board shall appoint two of its members who, with the Treasurer, shall constitute an investing committee for said funds, subject to the approval of the Board.

The current expense and building fund shall be subject to appropriation by the Board.

Amend said Articles of Association by adding thereto the following:

ARTICLE XI.

AMENDMENT.

These Articles may be amended by a two-thirds vote of the members present and voting at each of the three Annual Conferences above mentioned of the Methodist Episcopal Church of Indiana.

Resolved, That a certified copy of these amendments be made by the Secretary of this Conference, and filed in the office of the Secretary of the State of Indiana.

CERTIFICATE OF SECRETARY.

I, Leslie J. Naftzger, Secretary of the North Indiana Annual Conference, do hereby certify that the above and foregoing resolutions were adopted by said Conference on the 10th day of April, 1903.

In witness whereof, I have hereunto attached my hand and seal this 10th day of April, 1903.

MEMORIALS.

MEMORIAL TO GENERAL CONFERENCE.

To the General Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, to be held in Los Angeles, California, May, 1904.

Dear Fathers and Brethren: We, the North Indiana Conference of the above-named Church, most respectfully and earnestly memorialize your venerable body, the legislative authority of the said Church, to so change that part of our Discipline which has reference to and provides for the comfortable support of Superannuated ministers, widows and dependent children of deceased ministers of the Annual Conferences, that their claims may be fully and unmistakably recognized and regarded as claims of ministerial support.

And, furthermore, we ask that in the distribution of amounts raised for ministerial support, that our Discipline be so changed as to require that Conference Claimants shall share pro rata with Bishops, Presiding Elders and Pastors.

We give some of our reasons for making the above request:

(1) Our Church has, from the very beginning of its history, acknowledged the necessity and great importance of giving support to worn-out and disabled ministers and the families of deceased ministers who have given their whole time and best energies to the work of the Gospel ministry.

(2) We believe that the time has fully come when the Church, both its active ministry and laity, should see that it is as clearly duty to comfortably support worn-out ministers as it possibly can be to support those who are effective and in the prime of their strength. That when the inspired apostle said, "Even so hath the Lord ordained that they which preach the gospel should live of the gospel," he did unquestionably mean, as all must see who carefully scrutinize his arguments, that they should live of the gospel, not only while they are able to preach, but when their strength has failed.

(3) Our practice has been, if not entirely, at least very largely, inconsistent with our teaching in this, that we have been making the support of Pastors, Presiding Elders and Bishops a sort of preferred claim. Hence, in hundreds of instances, as we are compelled to believe, the claims of Pastors, Presiding Elders and Bishops have been fully met, while the very meager and insufficient apportionments for our Conference Claimants have not been half paid. It is likewise true that those apportionments have been, in a large majority of charges, less than one-half what was adequate for a comfortable support, notwithstanding the fact that our Superannuated ministers do not usually need nor do they ask for nearly so much as they received when in the ranks of effective ministers.

MEMORIAL TO THE BISHOPS.

Resolved, That, as a Conference, we request our presiding officer, Bishop J M Walden, to present to the next Semi-annual Meeting of our Board of Bishops our memorial to the General Conference concerning the support of Conference claimants, and ask from them such endorsement as in their judgment will be most helpful in bringing this great subject to the attention of the Annual Conferences and the Church.

OBITUARY.

MARGARET HILL JONES.

Margaret Hill Jones was born at Snow Hill, Maryland, June 1st, 1852. She was the eldest daughter of the late Rev Charles Hill, of the Wilmington Conference, Methodist Episcopal Church, and wife of the Rev Richard C Jones, pastor of the Methodist Episcopal Church at LaGrange, in the North Indiana Conference. She "fell asleep in Jesus," June 28th, 1902, aged fifty years and twenty-seven days.

In early childhood she was converted and united with the Methodist Episcopal Church when about ten years of age. She found much help in the development of a consecrated Christian character in the fact that her father was a wide-awake Methodist preacher, and her uncle, brother and nephew were college men and Methodist Itinerants. She herself was fond of study and a master of books, having had a thorough collegiate training at the Wesleyan Female College, Wilmington, Delaware. She taught in the schools at Wilmington and Hillsboro, and it is recorded that through her Christian influence many of her pupils were led to Christ and graciously saved. She was also a devoted and efficient Church worker and a Conference officer in the Woman's Home Missionary Society of the Wilmington Conference.

June 16th, 1891, she was united in marriage to Rev R C Jones, and shortly afterwards they were transferred to the North Indiana Conference. How her tender and constant ministry of love endeared her to all the people in the charges they served in this Conference! She was faithful as a wife; as a mother to motherless children; in all her Christian duties; faithful in the home, in the Church, and as President of the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society of the Goshen District. During her last severe illness, though at times suffering all the pangs of physical anguish, she was as patient and submissive as a child; and when she was brought home to her beloved people to die she was filled with deepest gratitude, exclaiming, again and again- "Home, sweet, sweet home!" On nearing the end, while fully realizing her condition, and surrounded by the devoted people of the Church and in the presence of her own home circle, and after prayer, she talked with her husband about her burial and the disposition of her earthly treasures, and then she asked him to read to her from God's Holy Word; and he read to her the latter part of the eighth chapter of Romans, closing with: "For I am persuaded that neither death nor life, nor angels, nor principalities, nor powers, nor things present nor things to come, nor height nor depth, nor any other creature, shall be able to separate us from the love of God which is in Christ Jesus," and then she cried exultingly, "Nothing, nothing, nothng can separate us from His love," and the gates of the earthly house opened wide, and Sister Jones passed upward into the light of the eternal morning. Saturday, June 28th, was her coronation day. She walked side by side with her Beloved on earth and now side by side with Him in heaven. "And ye whose locks are wet with the night of grief, whose hearts are heavy, because her voice shall no longer gladden your ears," look up, for yonder is her home.

Memorial services were held in the Methodist Episcopal Church at LaGrange, attended by all the ministers of the city, many visiting clergymen, and a great concourse of people. The memorial address was delivered by Rev C U Wade. Her mortal remains were then taken to her old home, where funeral services were held, in charge of Rev R H Adams. Her body was then laid to rest, by the side of her father and mother, in the beautiful Wilmington and Brandywine cemetery.

MRS. ALICE M. SMITH.

Alice M., daughter of Henry and Cynthia Humphries, was born near Fortville, Ind., March 18, 1859. Desiring to become a teacher she prepared herself for this vocation, and for the school periods of two years taught very successfully near Greenfield. On the 2d day of April, 1879, she was married to the Rev. Richard H. Smith, a member of the North Indiana Conference. Four children were the fruit of this union, three of whom survive. While at Churubusco, sharing with her husband the labors of their vocation, her health gave way. She realized a partial recovery, but last year, while at Akron, experienced a total collapse, and in the month of December last was taken to a private hospital in Chicago, where the best care and medical attention were provided. This, however, proved unavailing, and on the morning of July 7th, 1902, she passed peacefully to her heavenly home. Our sister shared with her husband the burdens and toils of the itinerancy for twenty-three years. She was a true helper to her companion — always cheerful and uncomplaining. She possessed rare social qualities, and these were consecrated to the Master's service, as were all her powers. Crowning natural gifts of a high order, was a clear and satisfactory religious experience. While ready for every good word and work, she was specially adapted for and greatly delighted in work among the children, in which work she was very successful. It was with her a constant study how she might do good and add to the happiness of those with whom she was associated. She had supreme anxiety for the welfare of her children. Not having them with her in the closing weeks of her life, she left a carefully written and sealed letter addressed to them, in which she poured forth her love and counsel and prayers in words of such tender solicitude as could only come from a mother's heart. At the last session of the North Indiana Conference, after an interval of fifteen years, Brother Smith was appointed to the New Burlington charge. His former pastorate here had been a very pleasant and successful one. The three years of this pastorate were very happy and useful years to Sister Smith. During a revival of unusual interest, she worked with great faith and fervor and success in winning souls. When, this last spring, her husband came again to this people as their pastor, Sister Smith was not with him to share in the warm welcome that greeted his return. The words of greeting with which so many dear friends would have welcomed her, could she have stood at her husband's side, remained unspoken. It was not until her form was brought to the home for the funeral obsequies that these friends were permitted to look into her face again. Then there was not, as had been hoped, welcome back to the old home and renewed labors and associations with old friends. Instead, had come welcome to the heavenly home, and, we are sure, that first among those to greet her in the celestial mansion was the King of the Realm, to whose service her life here had been consecrated, and that from His lips there fell upon her ears the words, "Well done, good and faithful servant."

Funeral services were held at New Burlington July 10th, conducted by the Presiding Elder, Rev. George H. Hill, assisted by ministers in attendance. A very large concourse of friends and citizens testified to the esteem in which Sister Smith was held and the sympathy felt for the bereaved husband and family. The interment was at Beech Grove, Muncie, Ind., where the final service was conducted by Rev. C. U. Wade.

REV. A. E. MAHIN, D. D.

"How are the mighty fallen!" Again we lament the vacant seat of one we loved, and listen in vain for the eloquence of him whom we delighted to hear. With unfeigned sorrow we perform the duty of offering a few words which will faintly express our feelings, and partially do justice to him whose well-tried friendship endeared him to his fellow-workers.

Rev. Augustus Eddy Mahin, D. D., was born in White county, Indiana, October 19, 1843, and died at his home in Fort Wayne, Indiana, July 10, 1902, in the fifty-ninth year of his age. The years of his boyhood and youth were spent in hard toil on the farm near the town of Battle Ground, Indiana.

Early in life he was very deeply convicted of sin, and with true earnestness sought salvation during revival services held in the Methodist church of the neighborhood; but, finding no light after repeated public seeking, he went alone into the woods, and while engaged in fervent prayer, obtained the inexpressible peace of the pardon of his sins. Some time after his conversion the conviction came to him of a Divine call to preach the gospel. As many others have done, he resisted the call earnestly for some years, but upon yielding to duty he found great contentment.

His educational preparation was obtained in Battle Ground Institute, and Garrett Biblical Institute, of Evanston, Ill. Principally, however, his mental equipment was secured by the mastery of books in his own study. Thus were early formed the habits of hard and systematic study which characterized all of his ministerial life. Books were his highly cherished companions, the mines from which he gathered his richest thoughts, the armory furnishing mental weapons for his heroic warfare. It was his expressed desire that most of his books, bequeathed to Taylor University, should continue their helpful mission to other investigating minds.

Before becoming a preacher he served as a soldier for his country during the closing scenes of the Civil War. On the 10th of May, 1864, he enlisted for one hundred days in Company E, 135th Regiment Indiana Infantry. On January 1, 1865, he enlisted again, this time for one year, or during the war, in Company G, 151st Indiana Infantry. He was happy, with great throngs of others, in seeing the close of the war. He received his discharge on September 19, 1865. His country ever had an exalted place in his thoughts, affections and work.

The community in which Dr. Mahin spent his boyhood is remarkable in one regard: From the two little Methodist churches of the same neighborhood and circuit, the itinerant ministry received Bishop Isaac W. Joyce, Drs. W. S. Birch, R. D. Robinson, H. N. Barnes, H. N. Ogden, Milton Mahin, John Mahin and A. E. Mahin. What a galaxy of Methodist preachers! How highly honored in the Divine estimation is that obscure country neighborhood, and how far-reaching and marvelous it is in its influence!

Brother Mahin united with the North Indiana Conference in April, 1869, at a session held in Pearl Street Church, Richmond, Indiana. Matthew Simpson was the presiding Bishop, and brother Mahin's brother, Milton, who had been a member of the Conference for about twenty-eight years, was the secretary. Dr. Mahin's appointments were as follows: Wawaka, 3 years; New Paris, 2 years; Elkhart, 3 years; Ligonier, 2 years; Wayne Street, Ft. Wayne, 3 years; New Castle, 1 year; Warsaw, 3 years; Wabash, 2 years; Presiding Elder of Fort Wayne District, 6 years; Presiding Elder of Richmond District, 6 years; Montpelier, 2 years. The grade of his appointments indicates that he soon rose to prominence in the Conference. It was readily conceded that he worthily occupied a place among the strongest men of the Conference. Leadership belonged to him by nature and grace. Very much of the history of the North Indiana Conference during the last twenty-five years his genius in a large way helped to make. He was honored with appointment to important positions, where faithful and efficient work was done. He was elected delegate to the General Conference in Omaha, in 1892, and again to the General Conference in Cleveland, in 1896. In the General Conference his abilities were recognized and his services were of great value to the Church. He possessed conspicuous pulpit and executive ability. As a preacher, especially in intellectual strength, few surpassed him. His sermons were distinguished for carefulness of preparation, loyalty to text, clearness of thought, defense of the right, antagonism of the wrong, and exaltation of Christ.

In executive positions as well as in the pulpit, he manifested unusual ability. He left the impress of his strong personality upon the two Districts which he served as Presiding Elder. The courage of convictions and knowledge of human nature, two essentials in the office, were fully exhibited by him. The work under his hands prospered greatly, and God's name was glorified. Many preachers and laymen who were under his official care, being greatly helped by him, will ever cherish his memory with just pride and sincere gratitude.

He was the youngest child in a family of six sons and one daughter. Of this family, three brothers—Milton, Wesley and William—survive. The latter two reside near Battle Ground, Indiana, and Dr. Milton Mahin, now residing in New Castle, Indiana, has been a member of the North Indiana Conference for sixty years.

On the second day of December, 1869, Dr. Mahin was united in marriage with Miss Catherine L. Birch, by Rev. George Rice, a local preacher and a teacher in Battle Ground Institute. Of this happy union five children were born, one of whom—Schuyler—died about eight years ago. The surviving children are: John William, a professor in the manual training school of Denver, Colorado; Mrs. C. E. Smith, whose husband is a professor in Taylor University; Mrs. Darwin S. Myers, of Fort Wayne; and Miss Elizabeth Mahin, at home.

Dr. Mahin was a lover of his home, and the members of his family have been highly favored in having such a husband and father. His counsels were always wise, impartial and loving. Aside from his work as a minister, he devoted himself to the happiness and usefulness of his family. His very last words were those of solicitude for the comfort of his wife. How sadly he is missed in the home, none but the members of the family can know. But Jesus remains in the home, and "some sweet day," God's word assures us, all may be gathered into the heavenly mansion.

His health began to decline during the fifth year as Presiding Elder of the Richmond District. But the acute illness—pleuro-pneumonia—which, with complications, resulted in death, began on the 22d of December, 1901, when he preached his last sermon. As ever characteristic of the man, he made a most heroic effort for his life, and brought to bear upon his case every possible means of recovery, yet kept himself trustful in the hands of God. But his work had been done, and God's time had fully come to call him home. Peacefully he fell asleep in the early morning hours, and was no more of earth, but of heaven.

The funeral services, in charge of Rev. W. H. Daniel, Presiding Elder of Fort Wayne District, and Rev. C. U. Wade, Presiding Elder of Muncie District, were held in Wayne Street Methodist Episcopal Church, on Monday, July 14th. At the home, before repairing to the church, a favorite hymn, "Rock of Ages," was sung by the ministers, and prayer was offered by Rev. C. King. At the church the music was furnished by the Wayne Street Church choir, and the North Indiana Conference Quartette rendered the selection, "I want to go there, don't you?" Prayer was offered by Rev. A. G. Neal. The twenty-third Psalm was read by Rev. John C. White, and the fourth chapter of second Corinthians, which was the portion of scripture he had requested to be read for family devotions the evening previous to his death, was read by Rev. B. S. Hollopeter. Rev. W. H. Daniel read the memoir, and addresses were made by Rev. G. B. Work, Rev. A. S. Preston, Rev. F. M. Stone, and Rev. C. U. Wade. Rev. T. M. Guild announced the final hymn. Interment occurred in Lindenwood Cemetery, Fort Wayne, where Rev. J. K. Waltz and Rev. W. H. Daniel read the burial service, and Rev. H. N. Herrick, D. D., pronounced the benediction.

The North Indiana Conference has lost one of its best and most faithful members. The young men have lost a friend and counsellor, and the old men a true brother. We cherish the memory of one whose departure makes life less dear, and heaven nearer.

"In the quiet joy of kindly trust,
We bid each parting saint a brief farewell:
Weeping, yet smiling, we commit their dust
To the safe keeping of the silent cell.

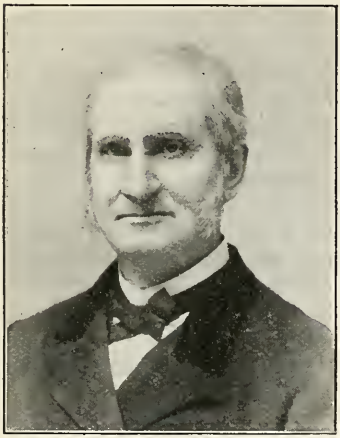
"Softly within that peaceful resting place
We lay their wearied limbs, and bid the clay
To press lightly on them, till the night be past,
And the far east give note of coming day.

"The day of reappearing! How it speeds!
He who is true and faithful speaks the word.
Then shall we ever be with those we love:
Then shall we be forever with the Lord.

"The shout is heard — the archangel's voice goes forth:
The trumpet sounds, the dead awake and sing:
The living put on glory: one glad band,
They hasten up to meet their coming king.

"Short death and darkness! Endless life and light!
Short dimming, endless shining in yon sphere,
Where all is incorruptible and pure,
The joy without the pain: the smiling without the tear."

JOHN WESLEY LOWRY.



John Wesley Lowry was born in Davie county, North Carolina, May 4th, 1825. He was the son of George and Mary Lowry, who were people of fine family and prosperous in circumstances. As shown in the name given him, they were fervent Methodists of the true kind. His father was an active worker in the Church, and an exhorter for sixty-five years of his life.

He had religion in his home and took his family and household to meeting; twice every year they attended camp-meeting—scenes of such power in those days. It was on the Clemonsville camp-ground, in August, 1839, when he was fourteen years of age, that he was soundly and happily converted to God and joined the Methodist Episcopal Church at that camp-meeting. Ten years later, in 1849, he was licensed to preach at South Grove Camp-meeting. He, having the advantages of a pious home and living in the glorious times of the old camp-meeting, early embraced a definite religious experience, which made him to greatly rejoice in God. He was always a man of true pious spirit and a preacher of the pure Gospel which is able to save men's souls.

In 1851, at Rockford, North Carolina, he had the great fortune of winning the hand of and marrying Miss Catherine A Williamson, a young lady of good family and many charms. The ceremony was performed by Rev Lemon Shell.

The next spring after his marriage, he and his wife moved to Knightstown, Indiana, where he engaged in the business of a druggist for four years and a half, and photographer, two years and a half. He received his education in the schools of his home neighborhood, and at the Jonesville Academy and the Mocksville Classical Academy, and during the ten years that he was a local preacher he preached quite constantly and studied with a view to entering the Itinerant ranks.

In 1859, ten years after, he was licensed to preach, and twenty years after his conversion, he was admitted on trial in the North Indiana Conference, at its session held at Logansport, and two years later, at New Castle, was received into full connection in the Conference and ordained Deacon by Bishop Janes. In 1863 he was ordained Elder, at Wabash, by Bishop Morris. He served the following appointments: Middletown, Hagerstown, Williamsburg, Whitewater, Charlottesville, Lewisville. For three years, from 1865 to 1867, he was a teacher in charge of the Collegiate Institute at Centerville, Indiana. Then he served Fortville and Pierceton. He was then transferred to the Kansas Conference, and was appointed to Chetopa, Baxter Springs and Winfield; then he supplied six months at Lebanon, in the St Louis Conference, and in 1875 returned to the North Indiana Conference and was appointed to the following charges: Farmland, Hartford City, Huntertown, New Haven, Miami, Xenia, Ridgeville, and Cadiz. In 1888, on account of failing health, he was superannuated, and settled at Knightstown until two years before his death, when he moved to Rogers, Arkansas. He had a serious heart affection, which troubled him for many years, and during the last few months of his life he was much worse. Monday morning, June 30th, 1902, he had a sudden attack of congestion and hemorrhage, which greatly enfeebled the heart's action, from which he could not rally. He passed peacefully away on the morning of July 10th, 1902, surrounded by his family. He was aged seventy-seven years, two months and six days. He has one brother and one sister residing in Indianapolis and one sister in Minnesota. His faithful wife, who has walked by his side for so many years, through the trials and triumphs of the ministry, survives him. Four of their children have been laid to rest: Flora A, George W, Mary and Martha. His two daughters were living with him in the last years of his life — Mrs Kate Ellis and Miss Ora Lowry. He has two grandsons — Lowry and Roy Ellis. Brother Lowry preached his last sermon in the Methodist Church at Rogers, October, 1901, at the Old People's service, his text being, "Now I know in part, but then shall I know even as I am known."

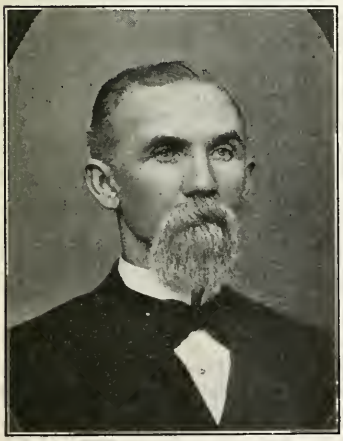
A good man has gone from among us; he has his glorious reward.

REV. T. C. READE.



Thadeus C Reade was born March 29, 1845, in Steuben County, New York. On his father's side he was of English descent, his father, David Reade, having been born in Sussex County, New Jersey. On his mother's side his ancestry can be traced directly back for centuries. His mother, Anna DeWitt, having belonged to the famous Dutch Hugenot family of that name.

Early in life Dr Reade came to Marion County, Ohio, where his boyhood days were spent. Here at the age of thirteen he was converted, and at sixteen, already being a teacher in the county school, was licensed to preach, and the same year he was given charge of a large circuit in Northwestern Ohio, then almost a wilderness. This circuit had five preaching points, and extended over a territory one hundred miles in diameter. His salary was small, and his work laborious.

In 1864, practically without means, he entered the Ohio Wesleyan University, where he earned his own way by using his axe, several of the fields cultivated today in the vicinity of Delaware having been first cleared for the plow by his efforts.

In 1868 he was married to Miss Ella Dodge, a graduate of the Ohio Wesleyan Female Acadamy, and at the time of her marriage, principal of the High School, at Mt Vernon, Ohio.

In 1869, he graduated from the O W U, receiving the degree of A B. With the assistance of his wife, he immediately assumed charge of Fairfield Union Acadamy, at Lancaster, Ohio. Many who studied under him there have since become quite famous. Among these was Dr W A Kellerman, who received his first lessons in Botany from Dr Reade, and who has since become a great Botanist.

Dr Reade remained here three years, resigning in 1872 to enter the ministry, uniting with the Central Ohio Conference. His first charge was at Defiance, Ohio, where he built a fine church, which is still used for worship by Defiance Methodists. From here he was moved to Sydney, Ohio, and, his wife having died, he was married to Mrs Laura Kirkley, in 1875. He remained in Sydney two years, when, owing to the loss of his health, he was compelled to give up preaching for a while. He traveled as a salesman for five years, in the far Southwest, for the benefit of his health.

Having regained his usual strength he re-entered the Conference, and was stationed at Ansonia, Ohio. From here he was transferred to Hicksville, thence to Fostoria where he spent four years raising a church debt of $16,000, and increasing the membership from three hundred to seven hundred.

At the request of the members of the Second-street Church, of Zanesville, Ohio, he was transfered to that church in 1889, resigning in 1891 to take charge of Taylor University, by means of which he accomplished the greatest work of his life. He sacrificed self in every possible way for the upbuilding of the Institution he so much loved.

At the time he was called to the Presidency, it was known as Fort Wayne College, and was under the control of the North Indiana Conference. A heavy debt rested on it, but the Trustees promised him five years in which to raise it. However, at the end of ninety days, they were obliged to ask him to meet with them to negotiate for the sale of the buildings. At his own special request, Dr Reade was given the privilege of continuing the school at his own risk and expense, and, in 1893, he moved it to Upland, and changed the name to Taylor University. He thus practically founded a new Institution, and did it, too, in spite of many difficulties and much opposition.

Surely God raised him for this special work.

Dr Reade is also noted both as an author and lecturer. In 1888 he visited Europe, spending most of his time in Holland, and at the same time making much more interesting his lecture, entitled "The Dutch."

His lectures were very popular and have been delivered in most of our leading western cities.

In 1878 he published a musical, entitled "Sunday School Concerts," pronounced by Bishop Vincent the best of its class.

He is also the author of a volume of poems, entitled "The Exodus," which has been widely read and greatly appreciated.

But it is through his "Sketch of the Life of Sammy Morris" that Dr Reade has attained widest notoriety.

It has been translated into several languages and brings students from distant continents to "The College of Sammy Morris."

He died at his home in the University Addition, on Friday, July 25, 1902. He had been in failing health for more than a year, and his decease was not unexpected. He died quietly and peacefully, praising the Lord for His goodness to him, and for the prosperity of Taylor University. His body was interred on the campus of Taylor University, and this institution stands as a monument of his labor and consecration.

The funeral services were conducted in the First M E Church of Upland, and addresses were made by Rev C U Wade, Presiding Elder of the district, Rev N U Walker, D D, President of the Board of Trustees of Taylor University, and Rev J H Shilling, Ph D, Vice-President of Taylor University. The funeral was largely attended, including many former students and ministers, from various churches of the Conference.

HANNAH ELLEN JENKINS.

Hannah Ellen Gwinn was born in Perry township, Wayne county, Indiana, January 6th, 1824, and died at the home of her brother in Economy, Ind., October 5th, 1902, aged seventy-eight years, eight months and twenty-nine days. Her early life was spent under Quaker influences, but she did not unite with any church until she was a woman grown, when she united with the Methodist Episcopal Church, of which church she remained a member until the time of her death. She was married to Rev George S Jenkins, February 16th, 1854. In 1865 he was appointed to supply at Lewisville, and the following year he entered the traveling connection in the North Indiana Conference. Together they traveled the circuits, endured the privations of the itinerancy, and shared its joys, for eight years, when, on October 27th, 1874, at New Corner, in the Muncie District, she was left a widow, God claiming her husband for heavenly habitations. She lived at the home of her father-in-law, in Randolph county, this State, until his death, nine years ago, since which time she lived at Economy, Ind. For three years past she had been in failing health, a part of the time being very weak and practically helpless. Her last sickness, however, lasted only about a week. She suffered little pain during these days, but she could not articulate, and when the end came she fell peacefully asleep to awaken in the City of Gold.

Funeral services were conducted by her pastor, F F Thornburg, in the church at Economy, and interment was at Beuna Vista Cemetery, near Unionsport.

MRS. CAROLINE L. PFEIFER.

It is a very sad task to chronicle the decease of Sister Pfeifer. Again we see that death, like the storm, is no respecter of persons. He has come down and silently taken a wife and mother into the invisible world. No man can bid him nay.

Caroline Louisa, daughter of Frederick and Christina Schenk, was born in Kenton County, Kentucky, January 22, 1864, and, while still an infant, came with her parents to Indiana, settling in Jay County, near Salamonia, where she spent her girlhood on the farm. Her life was one of arduous toil. She assisted her parents in the work of training a large family. As a consequence, her education was limited, but Nature made generous attonement in the bestowal of much native wisdom and grace. Her great force of character made for her many friends, and stamped itself upon their hearts and memories. She was united in wedlock to Lewis P Pfeifer April 19, 1887. She joined the Methodist Episcopal Church near her home in 1890, but a satisfactory Christian experience did not come until one year later when, on returning from a revival service one evening, she knelt with her husband in prayer. She knew that something more was in store for her, and that a requirement was being made of her to which she was not cheerfully responding. While both were praying for her the satisfaction came, and her life resigned as the clay to the Divine Potter. From that moment she never wavered. When her husband, later in life, informed her of his call to the ministry she willingly joined him in his work. When discouragements so beset him that he seemed unable to remain in the ministry, she gave him such encouragement that he could not desist. Eighteen months were spent on Kennard Circut, after which they moved to Spiceland, where three happy, pleasant years were spent. Their next charge was Philadelphia, where, after more than a year of usefulness, the end came, and rest was sweet. Her life closed amidst the greatest sorrow. Typhoid fever spread like contagion through the little family of three. On June 17th the husband was stricken the first time, but recovered in due time; but because of care and anxiety for his family he suffered a relapse, and at the time of his wife's death his life was despaired of. On June 26th, Carl, a nine-year-old son was stricken, and because of hemorrhage of the nose lay for two weeks in a comatose condition. The faithful wife and mother nursed them.

until the 29th, when she was attacked by the fearful disease complicated with nervous prostration. On July 25th, Saturday evening, the end came, and, unattended by the dear ones of her little family, but attended by the celestial spirits, she calmly and sweetly rested. Her husband and son were both too sick to know of her departure. Accompanied by an escort of devoted sisters and brothers of the church where she labored, her remains were removed to her childhood home and are interred in the family lot at Salamonia. The funeral discourse was preached by the Rev. Ezra Brumfield, pastor of the Methodist Episcopal Church at Salamonia.

A beautiful life has ended. A life of devotion to the Master and of service to her fellow-man. She loved the vineyard and the song of vintage, and feared not the mid-day sun; and when the Owner of the vineyard hired her she accepted the call and labored until the twelfth hour, and received therefor the penny, which is a home in heaven and eternal life.

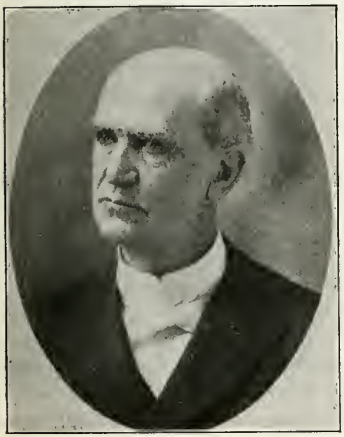
BENJAMIN ALBERT KEMP.



Benjamin Albert, son of William B and A M M Kemp, was born in Wayne County, Indiana, April 10th, 1841, being the third in a family of six children. His father was a local preacher, class-leader and steward in the Methodist Episcopal Church, as was also his grandfather. Hence, his home was the center of Methodist and religious influence in the community. As the result of this he was led to Christ in his early boyhood. He attended, and graduated from, the old Whitewater Academy, then taught school, and afterward attended Oberlin College one year. It was while in school there that he received his call to preach. At the age of twenty he entered the Northwestern University and Garrett Biblical Institute, from which he graduated with honor, at the close of a seven year's course, October 26th, 1865.

He was licensed to preach at Evanston, Illinois, May 15th, 1863. It was about this time that his country was in need of strong men in defense of the flag and he offered his services, but failing to pass the physical examination, he enlisted in the United States Christian Commission May 4th, 1864, and spent some time that summer among hospitals and camps along the Mississippi river. While a student in Garrett Institute, Bishop Hartzell, the late Dr W A Spencer, Dr John F Goucher and Dr J H Pyke were among his associates and most intimate class-mates. He was received on trial in the Minnesota Conference September 22d, 1865, and was ordained a deacon September 23d, 1867, and an elder October 10th, 1869, by Bishop Scott. He was appointed to the following charges in the Minnesota Conference: Sauk Center, Taylor's Falls, Rushford, Mantorville. In September, 1872, he was tranferred to the North Indiana Conference, and served Selma, Winchester, North Manchester, LaGrange, First Church, Richmond; First Church, Anderson; Muncie District, Mishawaka, Noblesville, Goshen District. All these pastorates he served were marked with some decided advancement, either temporally or spiritually. The remarkable advancement along all lines of spiritual work on the Muncie District during the time he was its elder were made possible by his wise management, assisted by an efficient ministry, thus inspiring a loyal people, giving Muncie District the impetus that placed it in the position it occupies to-day. At the close of his work on this district he was elected delegate to the General Conference at Omaha. He was appointed Presiding Elder of the Goshen District in 1900, where he continued in the effective work until within a few weeks of his decease.

While in Minnesota he was married to Sarah Eliza Snow November 27th, 1867, who died at Winchester, Ind., January 11th, 1876. To this union three children were born, the eldest of whom, William R, died in early childhood. He was married to Nancy Jane Houser March 26th, 1877, who died at Mishawaka, Ind., November 24th, 1894. On the 23d day of March, 1896, he was married to Mrs. Sarah J Poor, who, with his son, George H Kemp, pastor of the Methodist Church at Albion, Ind., and a daughter, Margaret A, wife of Fred R Strech, of South Bend, Ind., and a step-son, Lester C Poor, pastor of Methodist Episcopal Church at South Whitley, Ind., and a brother, John M Kemp, of Lynn, Ind., survive him.

During the closing days of his illness he was patient, and bore his great suffering with a Christian fortitude that was characteristic of him, and the last Sabbath that he was permitted to spend on earth with his family and friends will never be forgotten. During a period of partial consciousness he thought himself in a public service as presiding elder, and recognizing his step-son as pastor in charge, called upon him to lead in prayer. He followed with a prayer of remarkable fervor and power, closing with his favorite expression, "that all might be preserved without the loss of one, through Him who has taught us to pray," and then, with the family, repeated the Lord's Prayer. The following day, December 15th, at two o'clock, he triumphantly went to behold the blessed face of his Redeemer.

As a Christian, Brother Kemp had a remarkable experience, and was an inspiration to all whom he met. His belief in heart purity and its witness, and the high life attainable in Christ never faltered. A charming simplicity and frankness characterized his religious conversation with intimate friends, and great was the sincerity and purity of heart thus disclosed.

As a preacher of righteousness he was strong, clear and forceful. He delighted in the great doctrines and quickening truths of the Gospel, and preached them with unusual earnestness and power. As a presiding elder, he possessed those peculiar qualities that so well adapted him for the position he occupied. He was a splendid organizer, understanding men and their peculiar fitness for certain fields of labor, and the preachers under his charge could always feel that in his hands their cause would not suffer from any lack or inattention from him. He was one of God's noblemen. Such was his purity of character, combined with his genial nature and devotion to work, that we all, as co-workers, were irresistibly won to him.

The funeral services at Goshen were in charge of Dr C C Cissel. Addresses were made by different members of the District. Rev S Light spoke of Brother Kemp as a Christian man, Rev C W Smith, as a pastor, and Rev C W Lynch, as presiding elder. The final services, which were held at Winchester, where his body was laid away to await the general resurrection, were in charge of Rev C U Wade, who was assisted by the other Presiding Elders of the Conference. He is not dead but lives, not only in the glory land, but also through his preaching and the influence of his Christian life upon the large number whom he served as pastor and presiding elder.

MARY A. WHITE WILSON.

Mary A White Wilson was born near Hillsboro, Ohio, May 9th, 1816. Her parents, Charles and Mary White, moved to Ohio from Baltimore, Md, several years before. When she was twelve years of age her parents changed their residence from Ohio to Indiana, locating near Crawfordsville.

On March 28th, 1837, when twenty-one years of age, she was united in marriage with the Rev William Wilson, a Methodist minister.

In the fall of 1838 Mr. Wilson joined the Indiana Conference, which at that time included the whole State. He remained in active ministerial work, except during one year, until in 1873 his health failed, and in the spring of 1874 he took a Superannuated relation.

About forty-seven years ago the writer, while a student at what is now DePauw University, became acquainted with the family. Brother Wilson was then pastor of one of the Methodist Episcopal churches in Greencastle, Ind. He was pastor of some of the prominent charges of the State, among which were: Roberts Chapel, Greencastle, already named; then First Church, South Bend, which was his second pastorate in that charge. During the year 1859 he was transferred to the North Indiana Conference and was stationed in what is now Roberts Park, Indianapolis, and served a second full-term pastorate. His next charge was Berry Street, Fort Wayne, which was still another second full-term pastorate, and at that time it was the strong Methodist Church of the city.

There is a noticeable significance in this cluster of second pastorates, indicating two facts: First, the acceptability and popularity of the minister himself and also that of his good wife, for it is quite evident that if she had been a hindrance instead of a help, the husband would not have been sought for the second term; and yet it does not by any means follow that a single pastorate in a charge is proof of the unpopularity of either the minister or his wife. Perhaps few ministers' wives have so constantly attended the husband in making pastoral calls as was the case with Sister Wilson. And when her husband served as Presiding Elder she was often found accompanying him and interesting herself fully in his work.

We never knew of any case where the husband more fully sought the counsel of his wife in everything than was true of Brother Wilson, and he showed his own good sense in doing so, for she was a woman of most excellent judgment in everything that should concern her husband, and at the same time had no dictatorial spirit. Sometimes it is said that where a minister's wife goes so much, her home affairs are likely to be neglected, and, particularly if she have children, they will suffer the consequences; and that is now and then true not only in a minister's family but in others as well. That could never be truthfully said of Mrs Wilson. Their home life was most deilghtful, as some of us can testify, and she contributed her full share in making it so.

Immediately after retiring from the active ministry, which closed up in the Bluffton charge, they removed to Indianapolis, and Mrs Wilson again became a member of the Roberts Park Methodist Episcopal Church, where they enjoyed blessed Christian fellowship with many of their old friends. In 1887 they moved to Los Angeles, Cal, and united with University Church.

When Mrs Wilson's parents came to Indiana there were few church buildings, and their home was made a regular place for both preaching service and prayer meetings, and at one of those prayer meetings she was converted when a child twelve years of age. She never doubted the genuineness of her conversion, always full of cheer and hopefulness with regard to the future.

The ministry of her husband, beginning about sixty-five years ago in Indiana, would necessarily give them very much of the pioneer experience. There are perhaps only two ministers in the State whose ministry began near the time when Brother and Sister Wilson began their itinerant life and were associated at all with them. The two are Dr T A Goodwin, of Indianapolis, and Dr Milton Mahin, of the North Indiana Conference.

In those early days they had to undergo very many self-denials and hardships, but it was also true of the people generally. But there were very many compensations; the people dearly loved their ministers, and were eager to hear the gospel. There were fewer influences from the world to call away the attention of old and young from the house of God. The soldiers of the Revolution have all passed away; the same is true of those who survived the war of 1812. So it will very soon be true of those noble men and women who began their career as soldiers for Christ in the early decades of the last century. Only a few scattered ones linger, and some of them seem to tremblingly cling to this earthly life like the sear leaf of the oak, until some day a very gentle breath will loosen them from the branch where they so long contributed to beautify this world for God.

Such was the departure of our dear sister and mother Wilson. Her pastor says: "The manner of her death was in keeping with her manner of life; with entire absence of dramatic accompaniment, she met the messenger of death. On Wednesday evening she retired in apparently as good health as usual; on Thursday morning, October 23, 1902, she quietly breathed her life away. 'She walked with God and was not, for God took her.'"

"No tender, yet sad, farewell
From her quivering lips was heard,
So softly she crossed that quiet stream
That was not by a ripple stirred.

"She was spared the pain of parting tears
She was spared all mortal strife;
It was scarcely dying—she only passed
In a moment to endless life.

"Weap not for the swift release
From earthly pain and care;
Nor grieve that she reached her home and rest
Ere she knew that she was there.

"But think of her sweet surprise,
The sudden and strange delight
She felt as she met her Saviour's smile,
And walked with him in white."

Appointment Record.

APPOINTMENT RECORD.

The following Record is a continuation of that prepared by Rev. L. W. Monson, as found in his valuable Manual, and is brought down to 1902. An effort is made to condense as much as possible by using abbreviations easily understood. The figures "18" and "19" are omitted from the years given, as all the appointments are in these two centuries. In some instances no record is made of services in other Conferences, because of the lack of data.

REV. LESLIE J. NAFTZGER, Assembly Supt. REV. E. F. WALKER, D. D., Evangelist.
REV. JULIUS S. RODGERS, Institute Director.
PROF. JOHN BISSELL TROWBRIDGE, Director of Music.

(The Oldest Assembly in the West. Organized in 1878.)

Silver Anniversary 25th ANNUAL PROGRAM Silver Anniversary

ISLAND PARK, ROME CITY, INDIANA.

Opens July 10 and Closes August 13, 1903

12 days Camp Meeting and Evangelistic Program, July 10 to 22 ✍ 23 days Religious, Educational, Entertainment and Recreative Program ✍ 14 Special Day Services ✍ Upwards of 80 Great Entertainments, Sermons and Lectures

PARTIAL LIST OF PROGRAM TALENT:

General Fitz Hugh Lee, Dr. W. F. Harding, Dr. A. J. Fish, Poet Will Carleton (conditional), Col. Geo. W. Baine, Hon. Oliver W. Stewart, Rev. Miss Anna Shaw, Mrs. Ormiston Chant, Dr. Charles L. E. Cartright, Dr. Geo. W. Adams, Hon. Samuel Gompers, Rev. G. W. Gowdy, Rev. Geo. Wood Anderson, Dr. H. J. Becker, Rev. Frank C. Bruner, Rev. Julius S. Rodgers, of the Moody Bible Institute, and other Round Table and special lecturers furnished for the star days.

ENTERTAINERS.

In entertainers the very best have been secured. In the contracted list are: Kline's Cinematograph and Double Lense Stereopticon (full term), Mendelssohn's Quartette, Garrett's Band and Orchestra (full term), Palmer University Mandolin Club, Harmony Quartette; Mr. King, the Violinist; the Schuman Quartette and Concert Company, Mrs. Elizabeth de Barrie Gill, the Bruner Sisters, the Institute Glee Club, Assembly Chorus; Rossanni, the Juggler; Ellsworth Plumstead, the "Wandering Raggedy Man;" Alton Packard, the "Fun Maker in Chalk;" Miss Marguerite Smith, the Child Impersonator; also Miss Maud Baker, Miss Elizabeth Yoder, Miss Elsie McCrory, Miss Anna Quimby, and Oratorical Class in readings and impersonations, are booked for call work.

W. C. T. U., S. S., Normal, Model Palestine, Vocal Music, Instrumental Music, Art, English Literature and the Languages, Elocution, Physical Culture and Delsarte, Boys' and Girls' Classes, Kindergarten, etc.

The Reading Circle and Round Table Work will be made a strong feature in the day's program, at which time Art and Literature will have attention from the most capable leaders.

The Evangelistic Camp Meeting, recommended and endorsed by the action of the North Indiana M. E. Conference (see resolution elsewhere in this journal), is under the management of the Conference Quartette, with Rev. E. F. Walker, D. D., Evangelist; Rev. Julius S. Rodgers, of the Moody Bible Institute, in Biblical Direction; an experienced Deaconess and the Rev. L. J. Naftzger, in Social Meetings and Soul Culture Work.

Island Park is thoroughly Methodistic in all her plans of work, and yet is non-sectarian. It is popular for its natural opportunities for recreation—fishing, boating, bathing, and all the perfect health-developing sports of the Assembly class.

A New and Enlarged Edition

will find by inquiry that in the schools their children attend, Webster's is the Dictionary by which they are trained, and that their schoolbooks conform to this same authority. Is it not best to have the same Dictionary in the home?

The constantly increasing sale of Webster's International Dictionary proves that parents are wisely following the above suggestion.

Rev. Lyman Abbott, D.D., Editor of The Outlook, says: Webster has always been the favorite in our household.

It has 2364 quarto pages with 5000 illustrations. 25,000 new words and phrases have recently been added under the supervision of W. T. Harris, Ph.D., LL.D., U. S. Commissioner of Education.

Its appendix with departments of Biography, Geography, Fiction, etc., is a packed storehouse of valuable information.

Our name is on the title-pages of all authentic Webster's dictionaries.

LET US SEND YOU FREE "A Test in Pronunciation" which affords an instructive evening's entertainment. Also illustrated pamphlet.

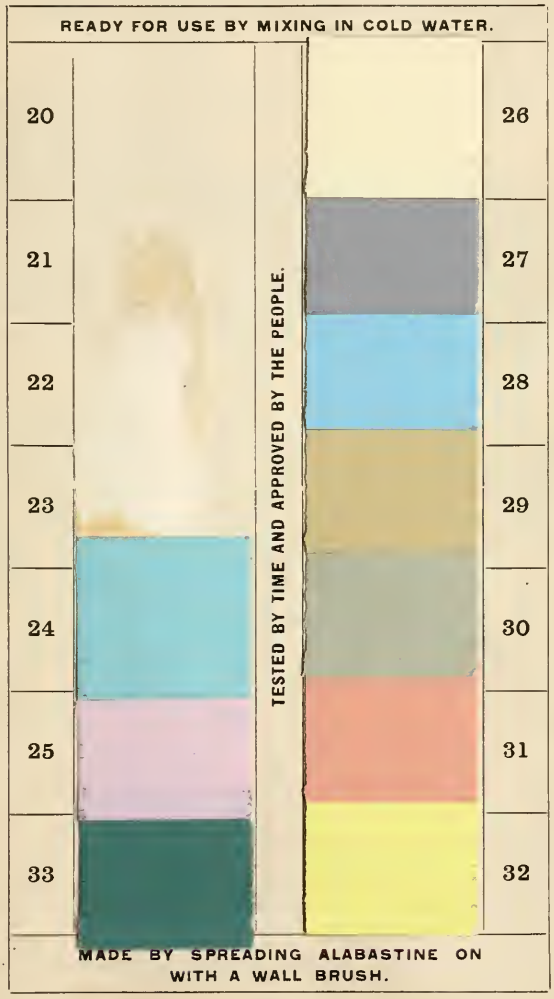
ALABASTINE

For Plain and Relief Work.

CHEAP KALSOMINES WILL NOT FILL ALABASTINE'S DEMANDS.



THE BEST PAINTERS AND DECORATORS USE AND RECOMMEND ALABASTINE.

ALABASTINE

THE ONLY DURABLE WALL COATING

For Churches, Schools and Homes

WHAT ALABASTINE IS.

Alabastine is the original and only durable wall coating on the market, entirely different from all kalsomine preparations, made ready for use in white or fourteen beautiful tints by the addition of cold water, put up in dry powdered form in five-pound packages, with full directions on every package.

WHAT "KALSOMINES" ARE.

Kalsomines are cheap and temporary preparations, manufactured from whiting, chalks, clays, etc. They are stuck on the walls with decaying animal glue. Alabastine is not a kalsomine. It is a rock base cement, which sets, and it hardens with age. It can be re-coated and re-decorated without having to wash and scrape off its old coats.

THE BEST WALL COATING.

Alabastine takes the place of scaling kalsomines, wall paper and paint for walls. It can be used on plaster, brick, wood or canvas, and is easily applied. It is cleanly, healthful and economical. Every owner of a building should use it. Alabastine can be used over paint or paper, and paint or paper can be applied over Alabastine.

CHURCHES AND SCHOOLHOUSES.

The interior walls of churches, school-houses and all public halls should never be coated with anything but the durable and pure Alabastine. So evident has this fact become, that hundreds of tons are used annually for this work. The genuine Alabastine does not rub or scale off. It is cleanly during the long period of its usefulness.

HOW WE CAN HELP YOU.

Write us about your churches, your school-houses or your homes and see how helpful we can be, at no expense to you, in getting the latest effects and sanitary walls. Buy Alabastine in packages properly labeled and insist on your painter bringing it in this way for your job.

REJECT THE "JUST AS GOOD."

The dealer who tells you that he can sell you the "same thing" as Alabastine or something "just as good," either is not posted or is trying to deceive you. In offering something he has bought cheap, and is trying to sell on Alabastine's demand, he may not realize the danger to himself as well as to you. Beware of all new substitutes.

..Exhaustive Concordance of the Bible..

By JAMES STRONG, LL.D., S. T. D.

CONTAINING

1. A COMPLETE CONCORDANCE

of the King James Version of the English Bible. Every word of both the Old and New Testaments is cited, and every occurrence of each word in its order. This is not true of any English Concordance heretofore published.

2. A COMPARATIVE CONCORDANCE, noting all the variations from the King James Version in the New Revision; and also indicating the source of these variations — whether they were made by the English or by the American revisers, or accepted by both.

3. A HEBREW-CHALDEE AND A GREEK LEXICON, containing a complete vocabulary of these languages as used by the sacred writers, and, by an ingenious system of numerical references, enabling the English reader to find, pronounce, and get the force of the very word which the inspired writer used to convey his thought.

Large Quarto Volume. More than 1,800 pages.

Fine cloth, red edges, $6.00. Half Russia, cloth sides, marbled edges, $8.00.
Half Turkey Morocco, marbled edges, $10.00.

..Chamberlain's Cough Remedy..

Unequaled

I have tried most of the cough cures and find none equal to Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It never fails to give prompt relief.
W. V. HARNER, Montpelier, Ind.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy not only cures colds and grip, but counteracts any tendency toward pneumonia. It is a favorite with the mothers of small children, as it is pleasant to take and contains no harmful substance. It may be given as confidently to a baby as to an adult.

VERY HIGHLY ENDORSED by

JOHN C. WHITE, Ass't Secretary North Indiana M. E. Conference.

Always Satisfactory.

Chamberlain's Remedies always give entire satisfaction. We are never troubled with any of their remedies being returned. Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhœa Remedy has the field to itself.
